MONDAY, JULY 2, 1866.

PITTSBURGH AND CONNELLSVILLE RAILROAD.

The city of Baltimore furnished one million of dollars to aid in the construction of this road. The money was all expended in Pennsylvania in the prosecution of the work. Afterwards the Legislature repealed the charter of the Company, under inspiration of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. Baltimore brought suit in the District Court of the United States to test the legality of the repealing act. This issue was tried last week, at Williamsport, and the result was the repealing act was declared to be void and of no effect.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company has a large pecuniary interest in the Connellsville Road, in addition to the interest held by the city of Baltimore. That Company has all along expressed not simply a willingness, but an ability, to complete the Connellsville Road as soon as practicable after the validity of the charter should be affirmed. Certainly its last annual exhibit showed a surplus amounting to some million and a quarter of dollars. We have no doubt of the means or the determination of the Company to complete the entire line and put it in operation at the earliest possible day.

In case of the failure of means, in this direction, which we do not anticipate, there are strong parties in this city who profess readiness to furnish whatever may be needful; and we have full faith in their ability and sincerity in the premises.

Our citizens have watched the progress of this suit with much interest. It may be an appeal will yet be taken to the Supreme Court at Washington; not with an expectation of arriving at a different result, but for the purpose of enforcing delay in the resumption of the work, in the hope that something may "turn up" by which the enterprise can be ultimately frustrated. Such expedients, however, will not avail. The Legislature must yield, at the next session to the imperative demands of the people for a Free Railroad Law.

CRAWFORD.

We announced, the other day, that Mr. S. NEWTON PETTIS was the candidate for Congress on the part of the Republicans of this county. This result was reached by excluding, on the ground of alleged irregularity, some precincts in which Mr. D. A. FINNEY had majorities. In consequence of this exclusion, Mr. FINNEY's friends retired from the Convention. The Chairman of the County Convention thought the throwing out of these precincts unfair, and hence he issued a call for what he terms a Regular Convention, on the evening of the same day. This Convention was attended exclusively by the FINNEY delegates. No difficulty was found by this body, in declaring that gentleman duly nominated. Thereupon conferees were appointed in his favor, thus transferring the quarrel to the District Conference. Mr. FINNEY made a speech, in which he was severely denunciatory of his opponents, and the manner in which the canvass had been conducted by the side opposed to him.

Of course, at this distance it is impossible to decide as to the right or wrong of the matter in controversy. This is manifest, however, that the discussion has been intensely personal all round, far transcending allowable limits, and that the result is precisely such as was to be anticipated. No good can come of this method of conducting political controversies, and there is an inevitable loss of personal dignity and respectability on the part of those who thus forget the proprieties of life.

THE TENNESSEAN is the title of a weekly paper published by SCOTT, WARING & Co., at Nashville, Tennessee. The proprietors are colored men, and their journal is devoted mainly to the advancement of the colored race. This race, long laboring under great disabilities, has now commenced a free career. The development of power so far warrants the belief that this race will prove formidable competitors to the poor whites of the South. Already they are engaging in almost all departments of enterprise. They have established a considerable number of stores, in some of which large amounts of capital are invested. Ultimately, and that sooner than they imagine who have not devoted special attention to the subject. Mr. SCOTT, the senior member of the firm, is now in this city, canvassing for subscribers and advertising. He bears with him strong testimonials from President JOHNSON, Gov. BROWNLOW and other eminents of Tennessee.

MAJOR-GEN. GEARY, Union candidate for Governor in Pennsylvania, was upon the floor of the House all day one day last week, and was the center of a group of members nearly all the time. He is deeply interested in the protection of the coal fields of Western Pennsylvania, where there are 25,000 miners now engaged in mining bituminous coal. He asks that they be allowed to place that coal at the wharves in Philadelphia and New York, at least, the cost of labor, freights, and Internal Revenue taxation, and that the cheaply mined coal upon the shores of Nova Scotia shall not come in at less than $1,25 per ton.

RICHMOND papers contain the details of a college commencement, at which General Fitzhugh Lee was present. He was received with great enthusiasm, and spoke as follows:

Ladies and Gentlemen: There is a small village in this good old State known as Appomattox Court House. At this place I was most forcibly reminded, on the 9th of April, 1865, that I had nothing further to say. I thank you most heartily for the honor you have so kindly conferred upon me.

THE expectation is that the Tariff Bill will be passed by the 10th instant; that Congress will not adjourn until it shall be signed or vetoed, and if it shall be vetoed, it will be passed into a law by a two-thirds vote in each House. Congress, therefore, will not close its session before the 20th.

There is no intelligent physician in the country who will not approve of this medicinal combination. It associates some of the most valuable agents known to modern science, and is worthy the attention of invalids wherever it can be procured. It is advertised in our paper to-day.

One of the Wonders.
The many proofs in the immediate vicinity where "Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher" is manufactured, is a sure evidence of its transcendent merits as a curative agent. Last week we published over twenty names of cases of cures of some of the most malignant and frequently fatal diseases, such as, cancer, scrofula, white swelling, running sores and frightful ulcers. Dr. Keyser says he can show our cured patients the scars and the cicatrixes of deep and dreadful ulcers and other diseases arising from a vitiated state of blood and fluids of the body. In many of these the bones underneath the muscular tissues had decayed, and under the healing influence of the medicine had worked themselves to the surface and were discharged. There is no combination of medicinal plants that can vie with Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher in the cure of disease. It stands without a rival and peerless, amid the host of medicines, which invite the attention of those whose misfortune it may be to be afflicted with any of that class of dreadful maladies which depend on a poisoned or vitiated state of the humors of the human body. It is equally potent in minor diseases, such as liver complaint, dyspepsia, dropsy, kidney disease, rheumatism, general debility or nervous weakness.
Ask for Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher, and take no other. Sold at 140 Wood street. Price one dollar per bottle, or six bottles for five dollars.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.
MUSHROOM IMITATIONS.
Success is the "prevalent cradle" of innumerable humbugs. No sooner had HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS made their mark in the world than up sprang a host of imitations, and as the fame of the great restorative grew and spread, the pestiferous crop of poisonous mockeries thickened. But the true medicine has lived them down. One by one they have disappeared. When the bellows of puffery, which kept alive the feeble fire of their borrowed reputation, ceased to blow, they ceased to live, and thus they continue to come and go. Meanwhile, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, the great protective and remedial tonic of the age, have progressed in popularity with each succeeding year. Their success as a means of preventing and curing the diseases resulting from malaria, unwholesome water, and all unhealthy climatic influence, has been boundless; and as a remedy for Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Fever and Ague, General Weakness and Debility, and all complaints originating in Indigestion, they are now admitted to be superior to any other preparation ever advertised or prescribed. From the home market, to which a few years ago they were confined, their sale has been extended into every State in this Union, over the whole of South and Central America, Mexico, the West Indies, the Sandwich Islands, Australia, China and Japan. Home and foreign testimony continue to show that HOSTETTER'S BITTERS are the most remarkable tonic and invigorant now before the world.
Hostetter's Bitters
Are sold wholesale and retail at very low rates at Fleming's Drug and Patent Medicine Depot, No. 84 Market street, corner of the Diamond and Market, near Fourth street.

Bill Relative to Jurors in Utah, &c.—Internal Revenue Receipts—Nominations Confirmed by the Senate.

WASHINGTON, June 30.—The bill introduced to-day by Senator Wade, to regulate the selection of grand and petit jurors in the Territory of Utah, and for other purposes, and which was referred to the Committee on Territories, provides that citizens only of the United States shall be compelled to serve as Jurors in Utah; that they must be selected from the body of people of the district; that the United States Marshal shall attend all the causes and execute all processes and orders issued; that when a Judge of any district is absent or disabled, his place may be supplied by any of the other Judges; that a citizen aggrieved by action of a Justice of the people, or probate Judge, may appeal to the district court; that in election by ballot, it shall be unlawful for any person to place upon it any mark or device by which the voter might be identified in a penalty of $500 fine, and six months imprisonment; that in all suits in which the United States are not a party, the officers fees may be charged to the proper parties; that the office of Lieutenant General in Utah is prohibited, and laws relative to it annulled. The section relative to the militia requires the enrolling and mustering thereof, and a report from the Commander-in-chief to the Secretary of War of the United States. Aliens shall not be enrolled; that marriage shall be solemnized by a Justice of the Supreme Court, and by Ministers of the Gospel regularly ordained, who are required to sign and deliver certificates with names and place of residence.

General Ruger, late Assistant Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau, in North Carolina, says the State Convention has rescinded the proviso to the act passed by the last Legislature relating to the testimony of freedmen in Courts. As the law now stands, the penalties are the same for white and black, and the testimony of all persons of color is admitted in all cases, in which they are personally interested. He states that there are fewer cases of violence toward the freedmen than formerly.

The total receipts from internal revenue for the year ending to-day, amount to nearly $300,000,000.

The Senate, in executive session to-day, confirmed the following nominations: Charles Hunter, to be a commander in the Navy on the retired list; Charles Davis, to be Surveyor of Customs, at Nashville, Tenn.

The following nomination of Postmaster was confirmed: A. G. Grant, at Jefferson Barracks, St. Louis, Mo.

The Battle of Camargo—Evacuation of Bagdad by the Imperialists—Citizens of Matamoras Fleeing to Texas.

GALVESTON, June 30.—A sloop from Brownsville brings files of Matamoras and Brownsville papers to the 23d, being the first arrival since the battle of Camago.

Bagdad was evacuated by the Imperialists, the Liberals assuming rule.

There were two companies of negroes who fought on the Liberal side at Camargo.

The convoy captured was valued at one million and a half dollars. The owners who went from Matamoras to treat with the Liberals for its redemption, were arrested by Escobedo, and a ransom demanded for their release.

The reports concerning the specie train are contradictory. The most authentic say they returned to Matamoras.

Carabajolo took command in front of Matamoras, demanding its surrender. Mejia refused, but sent for Escobedo to come and receive the city. Meantime Escobedo was marching to the assault. Mejia sent for General Getty, who went over to confer with the Imperial general. Mejia asked, if he surrendered to Carabajolo, if General Getty would protect the American citizens. The latter answered, "That is what I am here for."

The citizens of Matamoras are flying to the Texas side. On the 22d, the Custom House was left open all night, to facilitate their departure. Escobedo is endeavoring to pass the captured train into Texas.

The Brownsville Courier thinks some arrangement will be made to hand the city over to Carabajolo. These details are circumstantial and reliable.

Destitute Whites and Blacks in Alabama—15,000 Rations Required to Supply them During July.

WASHINGTON, June 30.—The Assistant Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau in Alabama reports to General Howard that fifteen thousand rations will be required to meet the wants of destitute whites and blacks during July.

General Robinson, Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau and military commander in North Carolina, reports a bad state of affairs existing in the above State. Sub-Commissioners throughout the State are continually asking for troops to protect them. He cannot grant them on account of the small force at his disposal.

Fractional Currency—Amount Shipped Last Week—Treasury Disbursements—Issue of National Currency—Proposed National Bureau of Insurance—June Report of Agricultural Department.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—The total amount of the shipments of fractional currency for the week ending June 30th, was $67,127,329. The amount cancelled during the same time was $420,588. The disbursements of the Treasury for the week were: War Department, $8,364,764; Navy Department, $1,791,023; Interior Department, $18,144. The disbursements on account of the above named departments during the fiscal year ending June 30th, amounts to $326,925,631. No national banks were created, nor government depositaries designated during the week. The issue of national currency for the week ending to-day was $1,320,930. Total amount issued to date, $282,555,140.

The bill recently reported from the House Committee on Judiciary for the establishment of a National Bureau of Insurance makes the bureau self-sustaining, while it offers security in matters of insurance by requiring all companies who may act under the law to deposit United States bonds, the amounts varying according to their capital stock. No party is permitted to transact Fire, Marine and Life Insurance at the same time. The object of the proposed legislation is to give every company an opportunity to show its solvency in order that the public may be guarded against fraud, the principle being similar to that now applied to National Banking Associations.

The June report of the Agricultural Department gives a comparison between the amount of raw cotton imported from the United States into Great Britain, during four months of last year and the four corresponding months of the present year. It exceeds the quantity imported from India by almost one hundred per cent., and equals the total from all other localities. It is equivalent to 503,726 bales of four hundred pounds each. The report says one-half a million bales in four months, and seventy millions dollars are respectable figures in trade with one foreign nation, even for the palmiest days of cotton shipping from the ports of the United States. Reports also shows that Great Britain brings, this season, ten times as much wheat from Russia as from the United States, and from France nearly six times as much. Only a little more than four per cent. of her seven millions of hundred weight are brought from the United States.

Letter from Tampico—People Rising in Favor of the Republic and for President Juarez—All Hopes of the Empire Blasted.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—M. Romera, the Mexican Minister, has received a letter from Tampico on the 10th of June, from which the following is an extract: The people of Huessutla and all other towns in the Huessutla District have risen again in favor of the Republic and President Juarez, as you will see by the enclosed endorsed slip taken from the Government organ of this city, of the 15th ult., styled Iris.

Eleven hundred well armed Liberal troops now occupy Huessutla, while a force of one thousand is being organized at Victoria, now in our possession against this place. The capture of Tampico is feasible, if our troops come with a force of seven or eight hundred men, as it is garrisoned with impressed Mexicans who will not fight against their own brothers.

I have just had an interview with a friend from Huastleo, who informs me that our forces have five pieces of artillery at Huessutta, two of which were captured from the enemy. The Imperialists make no resistance, and the hopes for the empire are now blasted. Huessutta had sent three hundred men against Fonieyuco, an important city in this State where there is a small Imperial force, which will surrender without a struggle.

THE WAR IN SOUTH AMERICA.

Most Sanguinary Battle in Paraguay—Another Expected.

NEW YORK, June 30.—Special dispatches from Rear Admiral Gordon give the following details of the recent sanguinary battle in Paraguay: The allied army crossed into Paraguay on the 18th of April, avoiding the Pass of Lapatria and landing some four miles below it in a region of country rendered almost impassible by marshes and jungles. This movement was hailed a great success, as their loss was trifling. On the 24 of May, however, the Paraguayans fell upon the right wing of the enemy and almost annihilated the Uruguay contingents, leaving but few besides General Flores to represent one of the allies powers in the field. The Paraguayans were finally repulsed with heavy loss in killed and wounded, but were not at all disorganized or injured in point of morale, which cannot be said of the Brazilian troops.

The great heavy battle, which is daily expected, will decide the fate of Fort Humausia and even of Ascension, but not the duration of the war, for the allies, by the secret treaty, are pledged not to treat with Lopez, and he will not willingly give himself into the hands of his enemies so long as he can maintain himself at the head of the army.

FROM NEW YORK.

Whisky Distillery Seized—Wealthy Capitalists Invest in the Manufacture of Illicit Whisky.

NEW YORK, June 30.—The reported seizure of a whisky distillery is confirmed. It is stated that about eight thousand gallons of whisky were found concealed in the building, all of which will probably be confiscated. The alleged proprietor of the establishment denied, when questioned by the officers before the seizure was made, that the premises were used for distillery. A brief search, however, proved that the statement was untrue. All the liquor, which is valued at about sixteen thousand dollars, was ready for delivery. It is of a good quality, and was distilled from molasses. The revenue agent, Mr. Lewis, has discovered that a large number of wealthy capitalists have invested money in the manufacture of illicit whisky, owing to the vast profits arising from the business. They have employed parties to act as the nominal proprietors of their establishments, in order to shield themselves from the consequences of a prosecution for defecting the revenue.

THE EUROPEAN WAR

Italy Declares that Venetia shall be Free and Accepts the Issue of a War with Austria—Religious Corporations Abolished, and Probable Repeal of the Law Exempting the Clergy from Military Service.

NEW YORK, July 1.—The Herald's Florence, Italy, correspondent, writing on the 11th of June, states that Italy, with all her national enthusiasm and fire, had declared that Venetia shall be free. She accepts the issue of a war with Austria, full of hope, and after a mature consideration of the dangers which must inevitably result to her from the continuance of a state of armed peace.

The Parliament proposes, and it is certain to be carried into effect, to abolish all religious corporations in the Kingdom, and apply their revenues to state uses. The law which exempts the clergy from military services was likely to be repealed; and, as there are 12,000 priests in the country, it was thought the ecclesiastical body would furnish quite a respectable quota to the army.

Garibaldi was as popular as ever, and Victor Emanuel was just about to start for the front.

It is reported that Mr. Henry Parker has completed important negotiations with Japan.

California flour is quoted at Hong Kong at four dollars per picul, wheat at three dollars per picul, and No. 1 Red at five dollars per pera, and Rice at five dollars per picul.

Fourth of July to be Celebrated—Railroad Bridge at Decatur—Affairs Politically and Socially—Acquitted of Murder.

NASHVILLE, July 1.—The Fourth of July is to be celebrated at Basley Springs, where Thomas' great cavalry charge was made in the battle of Nashville. Carl Schurz and others are expected to be present.

The railroad bridge at Decatur, Tennessee, will be completed on the 4th.

General Fisk returned after several days' sojourn with General Ewell in Maury county. He reports the condition of affairs socially and politically as very encouraging.

At Lawrenceburg, A. R. Ally was acquitted of the charge of murdering Jesse Evans in September, 1862.

NEW ORLEANS, July 1.—Generals Steadman and Fullerton, commissioners investigating the affairs of the Freedmen Bureau, and a corps of correspondents, have arrived.

Two justices have been arrested at Vidalia, Louisiana, under the civil rights bill, and brought here for trial.

The George Cromwell, from New York, has arrived.

In latitude 29 degrees and 42 minutes and longitude 76 degrees and 52 minutes, the steamer Morning Star passed a wreck, supposed to have been a schooner, water logged, and partially burned.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

WASHINGTON, JUNE 30, 1866.

SENATE.

Mr. Wilson called up the Freedmen's Bureau bill, and moved that the Senate insist on its amendments and agree to the Committee of Conference called for by the House.

It was so ordered. The points in dispute between the two Houses relate to the disposition of the Sea Island cotton lands. The House forbids the surrender of the lands now held by the freedmen under General Sherman's order. The bill, as passed by the Senate, contains a provision under which the former owners may get possession of these lands, except such as have been sold for United States taxes.

Mr. Hendricks called up a bill to grant lands to the State of Kansas, to aid in the construction of the Southern Branch of the Union Pacific Railroad, which was passed and goes to the House.

On motion of Mr. Brown, the Senate concurred in certain verbal amendments to the bill granting lands to aid in the construction and extension of the Iron Mountain Railroad, of Missouri. The bill now goes to the President.

Mr. Anthony, from the Committee on Printing, reported a resolution for the printing of ten thousand copies of the reply of the President to the resolution of the Senate calling for information as to the departure of the Austrian troops for Mexico.

Mr. Trumbull moved to amend by striking out $10,000 and inserting $1,000, which was disagreed to by a vote of, yeas 14 and nays 17.

Messrs. Wilson, Harris, and Nesmith, were appointed the Conference Committee on the Freedmen's bureau bill on the part of the Senate.

At one o'clock the Indian appropriation bill was taken up on motion of Mr. Sherman. The bill, as it come from the House, is sixty-five pages in length, and makes the regular annual appropriation for the support of the Indian Department, the carrying out of treaties, etc. The Senate Finance Committee recommended several amendments. One of these transfers the Indian bureau from the Interior Department to the War Department.

After some discussion the farther consideration of the bill was postponed until Tuesday next.

Adjourned.

HOUSE.

Mr. Kasson, on leave, introduced a joint resolution extending for one year the time of completing the Agricultural College in Iowa under the Agricultural College bill. The resolution was read three times and passed.

Mr. Donnelly, from the Committee on Public Lands, reported back the Senate bill authorizing the Commissioner of the General Land Office to sell at public auction the unsold lots on the Fort Howard military reservation in Brown county, Wisconsin, which was read three times and passed.

Mr. Donnelly also reported adversely on the House bill to amend section two of the Agricultural College Bill. Laid on the table.

Mr. Glossbrenner, from the same Committee, reported a bill for the organization of land districts in Arizona, Idaho, Utah and Montana, which was read three times and passed.

Mr. Glossbrenner reported a bill erecting the Territory of Montana into a separate surveying district. After debate, Mr. Price opposing and Mr. Ashley, of Ohio, sustaining the bill, the bill was passed.

Mr. Eckley, from the same Committee, reported back adversely the House bill allowing five years further time for the location of land warrants issued by Virginia to her officers and soldiers of the Virginia line. Laid on the table, and the report ordered to be printed.

Mr. Eckley also reported with amendments the Senate bill granting lands to the State of Oregon to aid in the construction of a military road from Albany, Oregon, to the eastern boundary of the State. The amendments were agreed to and the bill passed.

Mr. Eckley also reported, with amendments, the Senate bill to aid in the construction of a military road from Corowallis to the Agnenna Bay. The amendments were agreed to, and the bill passed also with the amendments.

The Senate bill granting aid for the construction of a railroad and telegraph from Folsom to Placerville, California, was taken up. The amendments were agreed to and the bill passed.

Mr. Holmes, from the same Committee, presented adverse reports on the following:

The House bill to amend the act for the relief of purchasers and locaters of swamp and overflowed land; the petition of the National Commercial School Association, praying grants of land to establish State Normal Schools; the act to improve the navigation of the Mississippi river to St. Paul and Minneapolis; the petition for lands for the improvement of Eagle Harbor, Lake Superior.

Mr. Holmes explained that the advance reports in the two latter cases were not made from hostility to the proposition, but because provision was made in the river and harbor bills for surveys in these cases. The adverse reports were laid on the table.

Mr. Holmes, also from the same committee, reported back the House bill to authorize a departure from the established mode of surveying in the Territories of New Mexico and Arizona. After explanation, the bill passed.

Mr. Julian, from the same committee, reported back, with amendments, the Senate bill to grant land titles in California.

Before the reading of the bill was completed, the morning hour expired, and the bill went over till Tuesday next.

Mr. Ashley, of Ohio, from the Committee on Territories, reported the House bill to provide a temporary government for the Territory of Lincoln, which was ordered to be printed and recommitted.

On motion of Mr. Allen, the Senate bill to aid in the construction of telegraph lines and to secure to the government the use of the same, for postal, military and other purposes, was taken from the clerk's table, read twice and referred to the Post Office Committee.

Mr. Rice, of Maine, introduced a bill for the establishment and maintenance of a public park in the District of Columbia, which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Public Buildings.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole on the state of the Union, Mr. Scofield in the chair, and resumed the consideration of the tariff bill.

A motion was made by Mr. Ames to increase the duty on steel and iron squares for measuring from six to ten cents per pound.

Mr. Harden, of Illinois, spoke in opposition. He said it would be better to pay $30,000,000 out of the Treasury to those for whose benefit the bill was designed.

Mr. Ames' amendment was withdrawn and Mr. Morrill moved that the duty be 9 cents.

Mr. Harden objected to taxing the people of the West for the benefit of eastern manufacturers.

Mr. Kelly, of Pennsylvania, said that the protection proposed was more for wheat-growers than manufacturers.

Mr. Moorhead, of Pennsylvania, argued that import duties did not have the effect to increase the cost of articles.

Mr. Harden ridiculed the assertion. He insisted upon a reduction of duties in behalf of the West. Cut nails could be made cheaper if the duty was taken off.

Mr. Dawes, of Massachusetts, said that under the influence of the protection principle, cut nails had fallen in price. The people of this country had profited by protection. Competion has sprung up, and we were no longer dependent upon England. The tariff bill could be framed only on one of two principles, laying the duties on the raw material, or the manufactured article. The effect must be to bring in the manufactured article on the laborer himself. The article must be manufactured on one side of water or the other. If on this side the laborer will enrich the country, and Illinois more than any other State. If Illinois wants wealth she must have laborers, and she can only have them by giving them employment.

Mr. Morrill's amendment was adopted.

Mr. Morrill moved an amendment taxing manufacturers of railroad iron one cent per pound.

Mr. Wilson of Iowa, moved to amend the amendment so as to make the duty 70 cents per hundred pounds. He said he was almost disposed to recommend Mr. Kelly of Pennsylvania as head of the Agricultural department, owing to the ideas he had put forth. He referred to the reduction of the Internal Revenue tax on railroad and pig iron, and thought that ought to satisfy the iron rollers.

Mr. Griswold said that manufacturers of railroad iron had been losing money for three or four years. Was a blow at the manufacturing interests of the country, the best means of securing general prosperity! Speaking of the free trade league, he said that not one of its members, was identified with the industrial interests of the country, and most of them were interested in the English trade.

Mr. Raymond gave some statistics and figures, showing the effect of the proposed amendment. He wanted to see the time come when manufacturing establishments could protect themselves. He did not desire to see the railroads saddled with enormous protection to benefit the iron rollers.

Mr. Griswold declared that competition was the surest way to cheaper production. The production of American rolling mills had been greatly reduced because low grades of English iron could be sold cheaper than American iron. He appealed to his colleague (Raymond) not to allow his judgment to be warped by the specious arguments of railroad men or foreign manufacturers.

Mr. Garfield, of Ohio, said the iron interest of the country should not be destroyed by the interests of foreign manufacturers. Those who desired to see the iron trade forever secured to England might vote for the proposition of the gentleman from Iowa. In 1750 a bill was actually introduced into the British Parliament ordering every iron mill in America to be demolished, and it lacked only thirty-two votes of being carried. A proposition was carried that no iron mill should be erected, and no trip hammer erected to be run by water power in America. The colonies might produce the raw material and ship it to England. There was the same effort still.

Mr. Dodge spoke in favor of increased protection for iron, and predicted that under it mills would spring up all over the west.

Mr. Allison favored a reduction of the duty. The iron interest ought to be satisfied on the same side.

Mr. Stevens, of Pennsylvania, regretted that the South had not taken away with it the free trade doctrines that now seem to be located along the Mississippi. Thirty years ago, before there were rolling mills in Pennsylvania, for iron bars of this kind, the price of the article imported from England was more than three times what it was five years ago. Before the war, the reduction was caused simply by protecting American interest, and yet gentlemen cannot see it or understand it. They are blind to everything but a theory, which cannot be reduced to practice without crushing all the interest of the country. England can send her iron here because the price of labor there is only one third what it is here. The price of iron consists of one-twentieth capital and nineteen-twentieths labor. It is labor therefore that the opponents of the duty are striking at. It is labor which the free trade league is trying to crush.

Mr. J. Stevens abruptly closed his remarks at that point, saying that he was too exhausted to proceed.

Mr. Kasson said he was glad to be known as a free trader. He, however, was in favor of fostering American industry by incidental means. He opposed monopolies. He would sustain our manufacturers until they were able to stand alone, and then say hands off. He would then offer to the people of the country the privilege of buying where they could buy the cheapest, and selling where they could sell the highest. I am for defensive measures against the aggression of other countries on the interests of our own, but I am not for annihilating the privilege of a free people, entirely to have a competition in the markets in which they are compelled to buy and sell. If that is to be a free trader, I glory in the work. Millions of people in the West cannot see it, when you tell them that they are getting their railroad iron cheaper with the extra duty on it, than they got it previously.

Mr. Hale said the cheapest of iron in this country before the war, and which would exist to-day but for the inflation caused by the war, was the result of a protection to home industry, of building up American interests, of discriminating in favor of our own labor, so as to give the market to home producers. If the home manufacturers were struck down the people would be left at the mercy of foreign importers.

At length the debate was closed on the paragraph, and the Committee proceeded to vote on the amendment.

Mr. Wilson's amendment reducing the duty to seventy cents per hundred pounds, the present rate, was agreed to by a vote of 50 to 49. Its opponents, however, rallied on the next vote, and Mr. Morrill's amendment, to which Mr. Wilson's was an amendment, was rejected by 48 to 52, thus leaving the paragraph as in the original bill, making the duty one cent per pound.

Various motions were made to amend it further, but they all failed.

Mr. Bandy moved to increase the duty on old scrap iron from 5 to 7 per cent. per ton. Lost.

On motion of Mr. Dodge, 10 per cent. ad valorem was added to the duty on iron wire.

Mr. Hall moved to increase the duty on all cast or shear steel from 1½ cents a pound to 5 cents a pound. Rejected.

On motion of Mr. Griswold a paragraph was inserted putting a duty of four cents per pound on railway iron.

On motion of Mr. Ames, the duty on steel was increased from 45 to 50 per cent.

Mr. Eldridge moved to insert a paragraph as follows—On all bonds, certificates of stock, or other evidence of indebtedness of the United States, or any State, brought back or returned for payment, sale or collection before due, 10 per cent. ad valorem.

On motion of Mr. Dodge, the duty on crinoline wire was increased from seven to ten cents per pound.

Mr. O'Neill moved to increase the duty on hardware from fifteen to sixty per cent. ad valorem. Rejected.

Mr. Hubbard, of Connecticut, moved to strike out the paragraph fixing the rate on copper ore fifteen per cent. ad valorem.

Without disposing of the amendment, the committee rose. Seven pages of the bill were disposed of to-day.

Mr. Banks, from the committee of conference on the Davis exposition bill, made a report recommending that the House agree to the Senate amendments, with amendments striking out the words "in them," where they occur, and the words "and return, and going and returning." He complained that they made the appropriation in currency instead of in gold and would reduce the appropriation from $35,000 to $156,000. The House bill had provided for national vessels on which to freight the goods, but the Senate, upon the representations of the Navy Department, had changed that, and appropriated $55,000 for freighting expenses. The committee recommended concurrence on that.

Mr. Ross proposed that action on the report should be postponed till the return of his colleague, Mr. Washburne, who was absent for sickness.

The proposition amused the House, as Mr. Washburne had fought the bill in all its stages and, nevertheless, it was not acceded to.

Mr. Lawrence, of Ohio, moved to lay the report on the table. Rejected.

The report was then agreed to by ayes, 70, nays, 21, and then at half-past four o'clock the House adjourned.

FROM MISSISSIPPI.

Bad State of Affairs—Reign of Terror at Grenada by Guerrillas Under the Leadership of a Brother of Gen. Forrest.

NEW YORK, July 1.—The Herald's correspondent with Generals Steedman and Fullerton, writing from Grenada, Miss., says there are more instances of outrage, bitterness and lawlessness in that State than in all the others combined, that have been visited by General Steedman on his present tour. An officer of the Bureau was recently called out of his house and shot through the head by two persons whom the authorities are unable to discover.

The headquarters at Meridian were broken open and the officers also fired at. A reign of terror is established at Grenada by guerrillas of the war, whose supposed leader is a brother to Gen. Forrest of the rebel services. There are no troops whatever at Grenada, and Gen. S. J. Wood does not appear to have done anything more than offer a reward for the arrest of the officers' murderers.

FROM GEORGIA.

The Freedmen Have a Conference with the Court on the Subject of Education—A Woman and her Children Murdered by Negroes.

AUGUSTA, GA., June 30.—The Freedmen conferred with the Inferior Court to-day, on the subject of education. The Court proposed to establish schools with the same rules and regulations which govern whites. The Freedmen are to send for northern teachers. The Judges made kind and conciliatory statements, and the freedmen replied in the same spirit. The Court adjourned, giving time for further consideration of the subject.

There was a horrible murder at Station No. 11, Georgia, on Wednesday night. Two freedmen butchered Mrs. Rollins, and her two children, and a negro girl, killing the former and leaving the latter without hope of recovery. One of the murderers was arrested at Boston.

Sulphuric Acid Gas as a Disinfectant—Result of Experiments.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—A communication has been received at the Department of State, from our legation at London, enclosing two pamphlets relating to experiments by Dr. Jas. Dewor, of Kirkcaldy, for testing the efficacy of sulphurous acid gas as a disinfectant. Results are cited, which lead to the conviction that rinderpest, pleuro-pneumonia and cholera and some others by which the human family are afflicted, may not only be very much modified but even wholly prevented by this means. The method of generating the gas is very simple and inexpensive. It is only necessary to have a chaffer of ash cinders, get a small crucible into them, and drop a piece of sulphur stick, of the size of a man's thumb, into it. This will fumigate a large cattle shed in twenty minutes. The animals seem to enjoy it, and it acts as a tonic on man or beast. The shed must be well ventilated during fumigation, as well as before and after it, and sound sanitary rules must be enforced in regard to cleanliness and removal of dung heaps.

During the prevalence of such epidemics as are above named, fumigation may be made according to the foregoing directions, four or five times a day, and not only is this treatment said to cure fatal diseases, but it is stated that mange, ring-worm and lice have also vanished before it, and that grease heels in horses have also been cured by it, while severe cases of phthisis and tubercular affections of the lungs have been relieved in human beings, a matter worthy of study and experiment by our scientific and professional men.

Dr. Dewor having liberally consented to the free use of his pamphlets, they will be sent by the Secretary of State to an appropriate committee in Congress, with a view to their publication and distribution.

An Unknown Suicide.

NORWICH, CONN., July 1.—On Saturday the body of an unknown man, thirty-five years of age, was discovered on the Pequottanock road, a mile from the city limits. It had apparently been there a week. The face was entirely shot away. A pistol and cartridges were found near the spot, and all the appearances indicate self destruction. A coroner's jury rendered a verdict of suicide. There is as yet no clue to the identity of the deceased.

Will Not Sign the Bill—Heavy Robbery in Brooklyn.

NEW YORK, June 30.—The Commercial's special says: President Johnson will not sign the bill changing the route of the Union Pacific Railroad.

The residence of Mr. Mellen, of the firm of Clafler & Mellen, in Brooklyn, was robbed of a large amount of goods of much value by burglars last night.

Another Murder by Freedmen—Murderer Arrested and Rescued by a Negro Mob.

AUGUSTA, GA., June 30.—Dr. H. Eaton was murdered by the freedmen in Camden county. The civil authorities arrested the murderers, but they were successfully resisted by a negro mob.

Destructive Fire in Boston.

BOSTON, July 1.—A destructive fire occurred in East Boston this afternoon. Half a dozen dwelling houses, Harvey Litchfield's foundry and W. H. Snow's boiler shop were burned. Litchfield's loss is $100,000; insurance $50,000. Snow's loss $6,000.

Stabbed at a Station House.

BALTIMORE, July 1.—Last night William H. Supton and John Christ engaged in a drunken fight at a lager beer house and were both arrested. While at the station house, the latter was stabbed by Supton, receiving probably a fatal wound.

Oil Strikes.

The Titusville Herald says: Since mountain territory has become so popular, developments have been going on with great rapidity on the McCray farm adjoining the Egbert farm. A well was struck a few days since on lease No. 1, called the "Parnella well," and is doing about two hundred barrels, owned by Dr. M. C. Egbert and others, land interest owned by J. S. McCray. The McCray wells 1 and 2 are producing about seventy-five barrels each. No. 50, Stevenson farm, still continues to flow and is steadily gaining, gassing very strongly, and is supposed by many that when the gas is lessened the production of oil from this well will exceed that of any other well in the country. We understand that Mr. Bloss, of the Titusville Herald, is interested in the well. We congratulate him. A new well was struck on the McClintock farm Wednesday, and is making a good show. Well No. 55, Benenoff Run, was tested on Wednesday, and indications are good for a flowing well.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Additional Local Matters on Third Page.

The Flag Receptions at Philadelphia—The Pittsburgh Regiments Going.

The officers and other members of Pittsburgh regiments have been quite active for a week or more in preparing to go to Philadelphia for participation in the flag receptions at that city on the Fourth, and all who design going are in readiness to start this evening. The following organizations, among others, will be represented:

Sixty-first Regiment—Organized by Colonel O. H. Rippey, under command of Captain L. Hager.

Sixty-second Regiment—Organized by Col. S. W. Black, under command of General J. B. Sweitzer.

Sixty-third Regiment—Organized by Colonel Alexander Hays, under command of Colonel A. S. M. Morgan.

Ninth Reserves—Organized by Colonel C. F. Jackson, under command of Colonel Robert Anderson.

One Hundred and Fifty-fifth Regiment—Organized by Colonel E. J. Allen, under command of General A. L. Pearson.

One Hundred and Second Regiment—Organized by Colonel Thomas A. Rowley, under command of General Rowley.

One Hundred and Thirty-ninth Regiment—Organized by Colonel F. H. Collier, under command of General Collier.

The Seventy-fourth (German) Regiment, organized by Colonel Schimmelfennig, it is thought, if not able to go as a regimental organization, will send a delegation.

Several of the regiments, the 61st, 155th, and 9th Reserves have prepared beautiful banners, on which are inscribed the names of the engagements in which they took part, and also suitable badges.

A considerable proportion of the delegations will leave at four o'clock in the afternoon. At seven o'clock a special train will leave the Pennsylvania railroad depot. This train is intended exclusively for soldiers, and no others will be permitted to take passage on it. Arrangements have been made for eight hundred, and as many more as desire can be accomodated. The fare is seven dollars for the round trip. The train will arrive in Philadelphia on Tuesday morning, and leave on its return trip on Wednesday night at 11:30, arriving in Pittsburgh Thursday morning.

The 61st, 62d and 155th regiments will form at City Hall, at two o'clock, and proceed to the depot under the command of General Sweitzer and headed by Smith's brass band.

A large number of soldiers' orphans, from Asylums in the western part of the State, will arrive in the city to-day, en route to Philadelphia, to join in the demonstrations on the Fourth. The Subsistence Committee have made arrangements to receive them, and have secured Mozart Hall, on Seventh street, wherein refreshments will be provided for the little ones.

Jail Worship.

A few months ago the county jail was without a single copy of the bible or other religious books, nor was the sacred name of God heard within its dull confines save in derision or blasphemy. Grand juries, skilled in the use of flowery language, frequently made presentments embodying this fact, but there the matter rested. A few philanthropic, Christian gentlemen, animated by a charitable desire to reclaim from vice the erring prisoners, resolved to take the matter into their own hands, and humbly inaugurated Sunday worship. Their's was a good work. They labored earnestly and assiduously, heeding not the scoffs of some really unreclaimable sinners, nor the scorn of uncharitable outsiders. Slowly the prisoners were won over to the way of truth, and taught at length to respect the word of God. A library was established containing not only religious books, but high toned literary works. To-day the prisoners look upon it as one of the necessary institutions of the prison, and Mr. Smith, the Deputy Warden, is kept quite busy in his charitably assumed character of librarian. A bible is found in every cell, while the prisoners are regularly supplied with all denominational religious papers and publications. The few pioneers in the good work still participate in jail worship on Sunday, but they are not unaided. A society has been formed having the moral condition of the unfortunate prisoners in view. The services are held under its auspices every Sunday, a regularly appointed chaplain officiating, and all the male and female prisoners participating. Some will doubtless imagine that all this will do no good, that it is labor lost. Here is the only place, perhaps, where the great majority of the inmates have heard for years the word of God. If only one soul out of the multitude be turned from wickedness, the labor of these gentlemen would be more than repaid. We know of reformation in several cases. There may or may not be true repentance, but we are not the judges. It suffices to know that they now lead virtuous and christian lives, avoiding the temptation of doing evil, and attributing their new course in life to the grain of truth planted within their souls at jail worship. Let the good work go on, and let all lend a helping hand. The library already numbers several hundred volumes, but it can be increased by donations. Religious papers can be subscribed and personal attendance at the worship will add to its interest.

The Regatta on the Fourth.

Preparations for the regatta over the Monongahela course on the Fourth have been completed. The following is the programme:

The following named gentlemen are appointed Judges: Henry A. Weaver, William W. Ward, Joseph Fleming, Henry Beaumont, J. R. Gardiner, Thomas Reese, Charles Paulson, John Paisley, W. R. Mooney, W. B. Neeper, James Phelan, W. C. McCarthy, Henry Tatnell, James Lowry, Jr.

The contestants are all from Pittsburgh and vicinity, none of the eastern crews being able to attend. The Biglin Brothers, Denny Leary, and the Ward Brothers, propose visiting Pittsburgh in the latter part of August, to take part in a proposed regatta to come off here in honor of Jimmy Hamill's return from England, no matter whether he comes back the winner or loser of the race for the championship.

Early Closing—The Ice Broke—Who will Follow?

An employer who treats his employees with respect and consideration is sure of winning their respect, esteem and good will. If he shows a desire to lessen their labor, and to contribute to their enjoyment and comfort, they will certainly work the more earnestly and strain every nerve to further his interests. In Allegheny, on Saturday evening last, a proof of this assertion was exhibited by a number of clerks and salesmen employed in the palatial and extensive dry goods house of Wm. Semple, Federal street. It appears that Mr. Semple has resolved to afford his clerks an extra hour for recreation during the summer months, and without solicitation ordered his store to be closed hereafter at five o'clock in the afternoon. The clerks were highly gratified with the pleasing announcement, and in order to show their worthy employer that the act was appreciated, they purchased a magnificent silver set to present him. Together they visited the residence of Mr. Semple, and one of the number in a neat and explicit speech, set forth the object of the visit and made the presentation. Mr. Semple was greatly taken by surprise, and in a few words thanked the donors sincerely, and stated that the gift was unexpected since he had only conceived it to be the duty of every merchant having clerks in employ to afford them at least an hour for relaxation and enjoyment during the heated term of summer.

After a hearty repast in which all participated, the clerks retired, having renewed confidence in their employer's generosity, and certainly Mr. Semple felt conscious of meriting their respect through a trifling act of kindness. His course is liberal and praiseworthy, and we trust other merchants in this city and Allegheny will follow the example and close their places of business at an early hour.

Killed at Lucesco Oil Works.

An explosion occured at the Lucesco Oil Refinery, on the Allegheny river, opposite Freeport, early Saturday morning, by which Lewis Weldon, brother of James G. Weldon, of the plumbing and gas fitting firm of Weldon & Kelly, of this city, was instantly killed. He was employed in repairing one of the agitators, and was on the inside of it, when the gas between the real and false bottom of the vessel became ignited from the fire in the soldering furnace, causing the explosion. Weldon was hurled out of the tanks, and his skull was fractured by coming in contact with an iron shaft, causing instant death.

Larceny of Bread.—Alderman Humbert had Antoine Monsoon before him on Saturday, charged with the larceny of three loaves of bread from the bakery of P. Miller on Penn street. Monsoon admitted having taken the bread, but stated in extenuation for his offence that he was very hungry, and having no money, was forced to resort to this method in order to procure something to eat. Believing his statement to be correct Miller withdrew the charge, and the accused was therefore discharged.

Whipped His Daughter.—Lemuel Cummins on Saturday appeared before Alderman Donaldson and made oath against Mary Adams for assault and battery. Mary, it appears, had been indulging in spirituous potations, and meeting with a daughter of the prosecutor she attacked her, pulling her hair and otherwise maltreating her. Mary was arrested and forced to give bail in the sum of $300 for her appearance at court.

Feed Boy Wanted.—A good feed boy is wanted immediately at this office. Apply at GAZETTE counting room, between the hours of two and five o'clock P. M.

Fiendish Outrage—Two Young Ladies Attacked and Cruelly Beaten.

One of the most dastardly outrages that it has been our province to chronicle lately was committed at a late hour on Saturday evening on the South Pittsburgh end of the Monongahela Bridge. The circumstances attending the affair as far as we have been able to learn are as follows: A little before eleven o'clock two young ladies, named Mary A. Baker, and Mary Ann Glenn, accompanied by a youth named James Simmons, started from Madame Rah's ice cream saloon, on Fourth street, to return to their homes in Monongahela borough. As they did so, they perceived a party of men, seven in number, came up Fourth street and proceed along Smithfield street in the direction of Water. At the corner of Smithfield and Water streets the men stopped in the shadow of the Monongahela House, and allowed the ladies and their escort to pass them. A short time after, and when near the southern end of the bridge, one of the girls, Miss Baker, turned round, and to her surprise discovered that the entire party they had but recently passed were only a few feet behind her. This circumstance alarmed her somewhat, and she was about to make known her fears to her companions, when she was grasped rudely by the arm and dragged to the middle of the bridge, where she was knocked down and an attempt made to violate her person. Simmons ran to the assistance of Miss Baker, but before he could render her any aid he was also knocked down and beaten in a cruel manner. Miss Glenn, in the meantime, started for the toll house, shouting "murder!" and calling loudly for help. Finding all their efforts to force Miss Baker to resign herself to their base purpose fruitless, her assailants began kicking her in the breast and side, and lifting her up attempted to throw her over the railing of the bridge into the river. Just at this moment the watchman at the other end of the structure, armed with a heavy mace, came to the rescue of the girl. After a desperate fight with the rowdies, he succeeded in forcing them to the toll-house, which Misses Glenn and Simmons had already reached. Here they were followed by one of the ruffians, who, drawing a revolver, insolently demanded that the girls be given up to him or he would blow one of their brains out. At this juncture officers John Coyles and Simmer appeared, when the assailants fled across the bridge to this city. An hour after, Frank O'Neil, one of the party, was arrested by the officers named above, and taken to Justice Barker's office, in South Pittsburgh, who committed him to jail for a hearing to-day. Simmons recognized several of his assailants, who will doubtless soon be under arrest. Miss Baker, although very ill from the effects of the treatment received is recovering.

Quarter Sessions Court.

Judges Sterrett, Mellon and Brown sitting.

SATURDAY, July 30.—The following business was transacted:

MARCH TERM CASE.

David Morgan was convicted at last March term for committing an assault and battery upon John Rhems, a German, in Birmingham. On the trial it was shown that the defendant with companions, had taken some articles from Rhem's wagon, on Carson street, East Birmingham, and that when the owner expostulated with them the assault was committed. There was a charge of larceny also pending against Morgan, but the Grand Jury at the present term ignored the bill. The Court, in view of the fact that the prisoner had been in confinement for some months, sentenced him to pay a fine of ten dollars and costs.

LARCENY OF A COW.

In the case of John H. Castor convicted of stealing a cow, on Sandy creek, Penn township, several witnesses, neighbors of the defendant, testified that he had heretofore borne a good character for honesty, and also that his family were in very indigent circumstances. The court sentenced him to pay the costs and to undergo two months imprisonment in the county jail.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.

J. A. Maute, having plead guilty to a charge of assault and battery upon Justice Hageman, was sentenced to pay a fine of $50 and costs, and to undergo three months imprisonment in the county jail.

ILLEGAL LIQUOR SELLING.

John Ruckreigle, of the Seventh ward, pleaded guilty to selling liquor without license. He was sentenced to pay a fine of twenty dollars and costs.

Important Case Decided—The Bounty Question.

In the District Court, on Saturday, Judge Williams gave judgment in the case of J. F. Learn vs. The School Directors of Mifflin township. This case was tried some time since and the jury found for the plaintiff, subject to the decision of the Court on the point of law reserved. The plaintiff it appeared, put a substitute into the army on the first of February, 1865, which was duly credited to the quota of the township under the call of December, 1864. At the time of securing this substitute, the township had offered no bounty, under that call, for volunteers, although some four thousand dollars of funds raised previously remained in the hands of the board. A few days subsequent, however, a public meeting of the citizens of the township was held, at which a bounty of $300 was authorized to be given to each volunteer or substitute credited to the quota of the township. Before any volunteer had been secured, the war closed, and of course the necessity for a draft under the call was obviated. The plaintiff made application to the proper persons, for the amount paid by him for the substitute, but a refusal was made, and the action was therefore brought to recover the sum. The ground of the refusal was that at the time the substitute was enlisted the township or School Board had not appropriated any funds for purpose. The point reserved was as to whether the appropriation made at the public meeting referred to was binding upon the authorities. Judge Williams held that it was, and ordered judgment for the plaintiff for $300 and interest.

The Cow Fee.

We noticed the fact on Saturday that a member of the Pittsburgh bar had accepted a cow as a fee for his engagement to secure the release of a prisoner from the county jail, going himself to the suburbs for the cow, taking her by force, driving her to the city, and stabling her on the premises of another attorney in Cherry alley. This occurred on Friday, and during Saturday the attorney concluded to take the cow to market and dispose of her. He started to the stable with this purpose in view, but was somewhat taken aback at meeting on the way a woman, wife of the prisoner, driving the cow away. He expostulated with the woman, but to no purpose. She said she would take the cow, on which she relied in a great measure for the support of herself and four children, and take her she did, the attorney relinquishing his claim at the persuasion of a professional brother, of whom the woman had taken counsel and acted accordingly. So the attorney lost his fee, but cannot complain on the score rendering service without pay, (barring the exertion and exercise required to drive the cow to the city,) as his client is yet in jail, no effort having been made by him, so far as wu could learn, to secure his discharge.

School Examination—First Ward, Allegheny.

The annual examination of the pupils of the Public Schools of the First ward, Allegheny, was held last week, closing on Friday evening. A deep interest was manifested by the parents and the public generally, evidenced by a very respectable attendance upon the exercises. The principal teachers and directors had selected a large number of neatly bound and interesting books, elegant steel engravings, &c., to be awarded as prizes to those pupils who should seem to merit such an award. All acquitted themselves well; the committee found considerable difficulty, frequently, in designating those to whom the second prizes should be awarded. The audience expressed their satisfaction with the evidence of the progress in the school.

On Monday and Tuesday evenings, July 2d and 3d, the teachers and pupils will give a series of tableaux, interspersed with music and select readings, at Excelsior Hall, as a closing exercise. Those interested in public school education will do well to be present on that occasion.

The Gallant 62d Regiment.

The gallant 62d Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers intend sending a large delegation to participate in the celebration at Philadelphia on Wednesday. The color guard's and other members will meet this afternoon at 2½ o'clock, at City Hall, from whence they will, headed by a brass band, parade the principal streets until four o'clock P. M., at which time they will take their departure for Philadelphia. The gallant boys extend a hearty invitation to all old soldiers and detachments from other regiments to fall in rank and participate in the procession.

—Since writing the above we learn that the 61st and 155th regiments will also form at the same time and place, and join in the procession.

Excursion Trip.

The steamer Chieftain intends to issue a limited number of excursion tickets to Geneva, for the benefit of those who desire a delightful trip by water on the Fourth of July. She will leave here five o'clock on Tuesday evening, and will return on Thursday morning about daylight. The cost of the tickets for the round trip will be five dollars for each couple—considerably less than half fare. This includes all expenses. A band of music will accompany the party, and a gay time generally may be expected.

Teachers Re-elected.—The First ward School Board have re-elected their corps of teachers, as follows: Principal—G. N. Munro, Grammar Department—Mary F. Eaton, Lida Mason, Lizzie Little. Intermediate—Josephine Irwin, Alice D. Patterson and Amanda McKinley. Primary—Belle M. Moffat, Hannah J. Bell, Caroline A. Carpenter, Emma J. Hamlip and Mary J. Cooper.

Large Funeral.—The funeral of Mr. Lewis Weldon, the young man mentioned elsewhere as having been killed by a gas explosion at Lucesco, was largely attended yesterday by his friends and relatives. The deceased was an amiable, intelligent and christian young man and his untimely end is deplored by all who knew him in life.

Will Fire a Salute.—Knap's battery will fire a national salute on the morning of the Fourth, from Seminary Hill, Allegheny City.

Charged with Arson.—A young man named Alfred Listen was arrested by Chief of Police Hague, on Saturday, charged with setting fire to Jas. R. Hill & Co's. board yard, in the Ninth ward, some time since. The information that led to Listen's arrest was obtained from his sister, who, in a fit of spleen, communicated the secret of her brother's crime to a person who instantly informed the authorities. Listen is a member of the Independence Engine company and served in the 102d regiment during the war. He has been committed to jail to await trial.

Sharp Dodge.—Some of the professional burglars have adopted a new method of obtaining information in regard to desirable places for "operations." During business hours, when householders are absent, men call at their residences, and represent themselves to be internal revenue officers, make minute inquiries of the servants about their masters' occupations, habits, silver plate, furniture, &c., which information is taken advantage of by burglars. Citizens should be on the lookout for such tricks as these.

Aggravated Assault and Battery.—Ann Welsh appeared before Justice Barker on Saturday, and made oath against William Brannon, for aggravated assault and battery. The deponent alleges that Brannon struck her husband over the head with a piece of iron, inflicting a wound of several inches in extent from which the blood flowed profusely. A warrant was issued for the arrest of Brannon, who is alleged to have been actuated to the commission of the deed through malice engendered by a former difficulty.

Fatal Accident.—At Meadville, last week, several children were playing between French and Cussewago creeks, above Gill & Shyock's flour mill, when a sudden tornado came up. It broke off the branches of trees, one of which struck a little girl named Carman, about ten years of age, daughter of M. Carman, crushing her to the ground and breaking her skull. She was taken up for dead and carried home, when Drs. Lasheils and Church were called in. They trephined her skull, but she died the next day.

Found Drowned.—An inquest was held on Saturday by Esquire Pilliars, of Indiana township, on the body of a man drowned in the Allegheny river, at Hawling's Eddy, opposite Edgewood Station. The body was evidently that of a German, about thirty-thirty years of age. He is supposed to be the same man who was drowned a short time since at the Pennsylvania Salt Works. After the inquest, under direction of the Justice, the body was buried on the river bank.

Reserve Corps Claims.—It has been officially announced that about ten thousand claims, on account of the Pennsylvania Reserve Corps, remain unpaid by the State. To facilitate their settlement, blanks have been printed, and are to be sent, on application, to surviving soldiers, and the representatives of the dead, by which means full and correct information upon the subject can be obtained.

Gen. J. B. Kiddoo.—Of our fellow townsman, Gen. J. B. Kiddoo, the Galveston Bulletin says: General Kiddoo is exceedingly popular with the secession press. But the funniest part of the proceeding is that they bless him for what they cursed his predecessor. There is an old and very homely proverb about the Spaniel that licks the foot that kicked it.

Takes a Benefit.—Mr. Hook, the gentlemanly and efficient bookkeeper of the old Theatre, takes a benefit on Saturday evening next. A huge bill is to be offered and we trust that Hook's benefit will not turn out a benefit hoax, but prove a good pecuniary success. He deserves a good house and we trust his friends will see to it that he is not neglected.

Shop Lifting.—Mary Hoffman, who's arrest for shop lifting we noticed in Saturday's issue, had a hearing since, and has been committed for trial. At her residence on the Brownsville road quite a quantity of goods of all descriptions, presumed to have been stolen, were found, among which was a piece of calico containing sixty-two yards.

By Alderman Strain.—John Gallagher and John Forker were committed to jail on Saturday, by Alderman Strain, charged with committing assaults and batteries, on complaint of Hugh Briceland and Roger Crozier. Patrick Kearney was committed by the same magistrate for surety, on complaint of William Loughrey.

Beat His Wife.—Mary M'Bride charged her husband, John M'Bride with surety of the peace, before Justice Barker, of South Pittsburgh, on Saturday. John was arrested, and made to give bail for his appearance at Court. It appears that John has fell into the nefarious practice of beating his better-half.

Sent to Jail.—Patrick Kearney, the man of many law suits, has been brought to grief at last by the irrepressible Mrs. Doyle, who had him lodged in jail on Saturday for threatening to take her life. For a time at least the war of the roses is at an end.

Soldier's Funeral.—Private Patrick Sweeney, who was killed on Friday last by the shell explosion at the Allegheny Arsenal, was buried yesterday from the barracks with appropriate military honors in St. Mary's Cemetery.

By Alderman Butler.—Toll Gallagher was committed to jail by Alderman Butler, on Saturday, for trial on a charge of assault and battery, on complaint of John McBride and wife.

For Larceny.—J. W. Mc[illegible] was committed by Justice Berry, of McKeesport, on Saturday, to answer a charge of larceny on complaint of Christ. Moffatein.

Court To-day.—The Quarter Sessions Court will meet to-day and to-morrow to dispose of a few remaining cases on the calendar.

THE EUROPEAN WAR.

The situation in Europe, especially of Germany, at the present time, is so extraordinary that it requires a thorough comprehension of affairs and a close attention to passing events, to understand it. To a free nation, like ours, it is difficult to comprehend, how thousand, yes, millions of intelligent beings can combat one another, not for the maintenance of principles, not for the preservation of sacred rights, but for a few ambitious individuals, who exercise over them a sway as despotic as unlimited; for dynastic family disputes and boundary questions entirely unessential to their true interests. And yet this is the truly lamentable, and even pitiable sight, which Europe, (excepting perhaps England,) presents.

In France we see a man at the head of government who in political intrigue, in subtilty of conduct and secrecy of motive, was never surpassed, if ever equalled, in history. Vain have been all the efforts of the French nation for liberty. Bold to acquire, it is too fickle to retain, and suffers a name, a vision, a phantom, to rob it of the fruits of struggle, in which some of its best blood was spilled. France is still a great factor in the affairs of Europe, but it resembles rather an automaton directed in its movements by a secret hand, than by a free agent, who acts according to the dictates of his conviction. Its armies are marshalled; its navies are in readiness; but as yet no Frenchman but the sinister man on the throne knows against whom these efforts are to be directed.

South of France we see another nation in a more deplorable condition. Once powerful and proud, now poor, but still haughty, a prey to internal dissensions, Spain presents a sad lesson to the thinking mind. Still laboring under the influence of a false policy of colonization, practiced hundreds of years ago, vainly trying to arouse itself from the long torpid slumber and apathy into which this policy had sunk it, it now much resembles the figure of Don Quixote, so admirably drawn by one of its first writers. Mounted on a poor, down-ridden horse, emaciated by the continual bleeding to which a bad government subjects a people already poor, it prances about, and, with pointed lance, looks about for an adversary, weak enough to bear its insults with impunity. Too weak to influence the destinies of Europe, it is satisfied, if let alone, and throws suspicious glances at its powerful neighbor, to see whether he gives evidence of the mania of annexation, so peculiar to the Napoleonic family. It would not at all surprise us to see him try it, though the failure of the uncle ought to be an impressive lesson to the nephew.

Going a step further, we see a spectacle much more gratifying. Southeast of France lies a country, once the stage of world-renowned events; the stage on which old Rome achieved its almost miraculous deeds, Italy, like Spain, immersed in death-like sleep, languishing under the poisonous miasma of priestly corruption, has at last awoke, and rising to new life and vigor, has astonished the world. A hero, pure and patriotic, as few grace the pages of history, has risen there, and accomplished in a short time the restoration of his country, a success but lately thought beyond possibility. Falling like an avalanche upon its enemies, he has put most of them to flight and reset the crown of Italy for a king not over-grateful. Still Rome and Venice, two of its brightest jewels, were wanting, and now the whole nation has risen to win them back, or perish. Again the strain of martial music flows through the land; again GARIBALDI, the noble chieftain, has set up his standard, and his brave red-shirts are crowding round him. It is a noble sight, this Italy renewed; a sight upon which our eye may love to dwell, for when we proceed, this purity of motive, this sacredness of cause, vanishes and we see nothing but sordid greediness, bold defiance of right and principle, and passions fierce and savage.

We need not go far for this. There is Austria, a large but not a great country. Injustice and despotism have fostered her infancy; iniquity and cruelty have nursed her growth. She stands there now, a monster, so motley in its composition, so incongruous in its elements, that it has the sympathy of few, the assistance of none. It stands alone in this gigantic struggle, and we can well understand its desperate efforts, to begin it with means adequate to the interest at stake. If it fails, if its armies are beaten, it may be torn in pieces, and the world may see its rotten fabric fall to the ground.

The double fight against Prussia and Italy is not only injurious to Austria, because it increases the numbers of the enemies in the field, it is also tending to destroy the sympathy which she might otherwise receive. The fairness of her cause against the northern aggressor becomes polluted by the stubborn obstinacy with which she withholds Venice from her southern neighbor. With unexampled blindness she refused to yield to the requirements of justice, and instead of winning sympathy and succor by a reasonable compliance with Italy's demands, and turning her entire and overwhelming force against her ambitious northern neighbor, she preferred to fight a foe in front and another in the rear, and that, too, in the face of the opinion of the world.

Leaving her in this plight and taking a northward step, we see a spectacle strange and inexplicable. We see a nation trampled upon, not so much by its King as by his minion; a nation, whose most sacred rights have been violated by a responsible Minister in the face of a constitution and its privileges. We see this Minister rule as independently as the most absolute despot, and no hand raised to prevent him, excepting that of a fanatic youth, who accomplishes nothing but his self-destruction. Why does this nation not move? Why is a low murmur the only manifestation of dissatisfaction? It is partly the reluctance with which a nation plunges into a revolution, but it is also, and mostly, the tribute paid to greatness even when allied to want of principle. BISMARK is undoubtedly a great man, though a great man of the type of LOUIS NAPOLEON. There is undoubtly a secret understanding. Years ago NAPOLEAN recommended BISMARK to the King of Prussia, and BISMARK owes his present position to French influence. Assuming a perfect understanding between these powers, the events of the last few years and their causes becomes at once clear. It was with NAPOLEON's sanction that Prussia moved against Denmark, and Prussia would have moved alone if Austria's jealousy had not induced her to join and keep a watchful eye upon the motions of her rival. It was with NAPOLEON's sanction that Prussia furthermore threw off her mask and required Austria to recede from her position, and accept a pecuniary remuneration; that she made an alliance with Italy; that she defied the smaller German States; that she now enters Hanover and makes it the first morsel she means to swallow. Would Prussia have dared all this without a powerful backer, without the silent man in the Tuileries? There is an absolute certainty that France sides with Prussia, while pretending a perfect neutrality; though to unravel the conditions of the treaty; to guess at the reward which NAPOLEON may have stipulated; is idle work just now. The treaty, at least, the understanding, exists beyond a doubt, and the late movements of Russia confirm us in this opinion. Russia is said to have notified her foreign minister that the first steps of France indicating her intention to abandon a strict neutrality, would induce her to pursue a similar course. This shows evidently that Russia fears seeing Austria crushed under such a weight of power as France, Italy and Prussia can bring against her. She cannot contemplate such a thing without remonstrance; hence the step alluded to. We cannot, however, on the other hand, believe that Russia is very anxious to stand up as champion for the safety of Austria. Russia's course has always been towards Constantinople, and it cannot be her policy to favor a strong Power in the neighborhood of Turkey. Nor is Russia well prepared to enter a fight now. Her serfs lately emancipated, the Poles lately subdued, Railroads building, institutions growing, factories springing up, in short, the incomplete development of Russian resources—all this must induce her to stand aloof and to gather strength while others are wasting theirs; and to watch her opportunity and improve it. Russia is an aggressive power, and the day will come when her legions will advance to accomplish the conquest of Europe; but, we repeat it, her time has not come.

We have now nearly completed our review of the European Powers. Denmark, if seconded by the other Scandinavian States may strike a blow for the recovery of her lost principalities, and thus increase the number of Prussia's enemies. The grand fortifications of the latter Power in Holstein and Schleswig show that she believes such a thing at least possible, and what before was a small matter might, under circumstances, grow to be a serious inconvenience. The smaller German States assume an attitude hostile to Prussia, and may before long join their forces to those of Austria, if some significant hint from across the Rhine does not prevent it. And England? England is a mere cypher in this complication! She assumes an air of dignity and says: "We stand aloof from what does not concern us. We desire peace, but if you are so inclined you may spill each other's blood at pleasure."

Whether this is correct, or whether we may credit the rumors of her enemies, alleging that it is fear of consequences rather than want of disposition to join in the great fray, this is hard to tell. The future, however, will show it, and the future alone will lift the curtain from those awful events that are rapidly and unavoidably approaching. Happy are we that, instead of being the actors, we may stand aside and look on as spectators of the play. Though affected, to a certain degree, in our commercial and industrial relations by this struggle, it is not very likely that we will be drawn in the yawning whirlpool, for here it is not the capricious will of an individual but the resolve of a great, intelligent nation that decides our destinies.

The Catawissa Case.

WILKESBARRE, PA., June 29, 1866.

The following decision has just been rendered in the quo warranto case, in the matter of the Catawissa Railroad, viz:

That the agreement of consolidation is valid and lawful; that the plea of nul tiel record is good, and the demurrer is overruled, with leave to the defendants to rejoin that there is a record. Then if the original agreement is produced, accompanied by proof that it was deposited with the Secretary of State on October 3, judgment will be entered for the defendants; or, if it should appear necessary that Slifer, Secretary of the State of Pennsylvania, should mark the paper filed, a mandamus will be granted to compel him to do so, in two bills in equity: First, That none of the plaintiffs have any right to question the corporate existence of the Atlantic and Great Western Railroad Company. Second, As Andrew Scott has no stock in the new company, he has no standing in court. Third, That the Catawissa lease is a good, valid and legal contract. Fourth, That the agreement of October 31, 1860, remains in force and passes to the lessees. Fifth, That the Philadelphia and Erie Road does connect the Atlantic and Great Western Railroad with the Catawissa Road, notwithstanding the difference in gauge.

Judge Read only dissents.

COLONEL FORNEY, writing under date of June 28th, says:

"I have information, upon which I place full reliance, that a complete plan of operations has been adopted for the purpose of preventing the different Legislatures of the South, and even those of the North, from ratifying the new amendment of the National Constitution. The same appliances that were resorted to in New Jersey to defeat the Union candidate for Senator are now used with a malignant desperation that baffles description. The call of the Tennessee Legislature by Governor Brownlow has so excited the resentment of Andrew Johnson that he will leave no stone unturned to prevent a quorum of that body from meeting! In order to effect this the system of "bolting" which was tried under his auspices a few months ago in that State, in order to defeat the bill disfranchising the rebels, will be again encouraged. Wherever patronage can be used to prevent the Southern Legislatures from acting it will be done. Of course, the whole object is to give effect to that portion of the policy which, through the influence of Seward, insists that the rebels shall be returned unconditionally into Congress, upon the existing basis of representation. This startling plot only shows how utterly futile is every hope of reconciliation with or reason from our accidental President."

A WASHINGTON special to the Philadelphia Press says:

"There is hardly a Southern Legislature to-day left untrammelled by the influence of Andrew Johnson's officials, and unawed by the threats that come from the Department of State, that would not be so encouraged by the liberal spirit of Congress, and by the powerful solidity of the Republican party, as to give a hearty sanction to this amendment. The practical Southern men now here see that the amendment is their only and their best hope."

—E. M. Pease, who is running for Governor in Texas, was born in Connecticut.

AN INTERESTING QUESTION.—An exchange says: Ought married people to sleep together? Hall's Journal of Health, which claims to be the highest authority in medical science, has taken a stand against married people sleeping together, and thinks they had better sleep in adjoining rooms. It says kings and queens never sleep together, and why should other people? Think of separating a newly married pair on a cold winter's night, because Hall's Journal of Health says so.

We suppose the reason that Mr. Hall has taken the stand that he has, is because he has studied the science of medicine so much in his young days, as to become round-shouldered, and so much deformed otherwise as to prevent the fair sex from admiring him very much. If he is not deformed in his body, he certainly is in the head. Just think of it. Our wife going to bed in one room and us in another, especially when the rats are as bad as they are at our house. Mr. Hall can just go anywhere he pleases, provided he has the wherewith to pay his fare, but we'll snooze with our wife as long as we've got one.

ANDERSONVILLE MEMENTOES.—One of the stands at the National Fair for the Soldiers and Sailors, now in progress at Washington, is occupied by mementoes from the prison camp at Andersonville, where so many Union soldiers suffered lingering agonies, and died of cruel treatment. An exchange thus refers to the articles exhibited at this stand:

"Under a glass case are the rude dishes and spoons manufactured by the prisoners, and wooden head-boards from the graves, the letter-box and other painful curiosities from that hell upon earth, including the record book of deaths kept by Dorence Atwater, by which alone it has been possible to identify the thousands of graves. Miss Clara Barton is in charge of this stand. She has fortunately obtained a photograph of Barbara Freitche, and will soon have copies for sale. The face of the old heroine, it is said, full of high and serene courage, would be the fittest illustration to Whittier's poem."

AMONG the list of the brevet promotions recently sent to the Senate was the name of Col. Wm. B. Stokes, Representative elect from Tennessee, who has been doing glorious work for the Union cause during the past year. The list was sent from Secretary Stanton to the President, and by him submitted to the Senate. Without a moment's delay or a word of explanation, the President with his own hand erased the name of Col. Stokes. Such an act is almost without precedent, but Col. Stokes does not support "my policy."

THE Vienna correspondent of the New York Herald, writing on the 6th of June, says: "General McClellan came down to Prague a few days since, from Dresden, where he has been residing for some months, and after visiting the lions of that fine old town and paying his respects to General Benedek, the commander-in-chief of the Northern Austrian army, he took his departure for Munich. He is expected here in a few days, and will probably occupy himself considerably in observing the immense military preparations now in progress in the heart of Europe."

BOTTLED ALES, LONDON PORTER, BROWN STOUT.—To get genuine Imported LONDON ALE, PORTER or BROWN STOUT has been almost an impossibility in this city, notwithstanding the fact that there are few tonics more suitable for weakly persons and invalids. The Strife of the Factions.

As our readers are doubtless aware, there has been an unrelenting warfare carried on during the past week, in the circumscribed limits of Church alley, between the Kearneys, Laughreys and Doyles, which has been the fruitful cause of litigation without end, and tribulation to our local magistrates. In the first place, Kearney sues Mrs. Doyle for keeping a disorderly house, of which she was acquitted. Like another Margaret of Anjou, the feminine representative of the house of Doyle renewed the contest by charging Kearney—not with broadsword or halbert, but with surety of the peace, of which he in turn was acquitted. Next Kearney had two of the Laughreys held to bail for committing an assault and battery upon him. This was followed by Mrs. Doyle having Kearney and a fellow named Barney Harrington, who seemed to cling to the fortunes of the house of Kearney with the tenacity of a second Mirartio, arrested and held to bail for surety of the peace. As soon as Harrington was freed from the clutches and entangling meshes of the law, he determined to escape further strife, and breathing a curse on "both your houses," started for the rural quiet of Wilkins township. But Kearney was not thus easily to be overcome, and maddened with the last suit, he appeared before Alderman Lynch, of the Third ward, on Saturday, and stated to the astonished justice that he wished to make five distinct charges against Mrs. Doyle, and an endless number against other denizens of Church alley, and concluded by declaring it was his fixed determination that the entire neighborhood should be consigned to the gloomy interior of the county jail. Disgusted and perplexed with the many issues already before him, the worthy dispenser of justice, like another Haroun al Raschid, declared that if Kearney did not immediately "take his face from out his door" he would be forced to spoil a blank by committing him to the seclusion of those quarters he was so desirous his neighbors should enjoy. This threat had the desired effect, and Kearney departed, muttering imprecations on the heads of all magistrates and law makers, and on the cranium of the offending Alderman in particular.

Life Insurance,

Which but a few years ago was regarded as a useless novelty or yankee trick, is now much better understood and appreciated. What was formerly regarded with almost superstitious dread, especially by the unthinking, the idea of insuring against Providence, has come to be a common device of large numbers of our most discreet and judicious citizens, thus securing their families from indigence and want in the event of death. With a large class, the comfort and happiness of mother and children absolutely depend on the life of the father. Prudent fathers now contrive for a small annual premium, to keep a handsome sum insured on their lives, which serves to support the family when their efforts are paralysed by death. Another class of men, men of wealth, who do not require insurance as a support for their families, are nevertheless insuring their lives in the mutual offices, as one of the best and safest investments that can be made of surplus money. We know of several of these that have ten, twenty and fifty thousand dollars insured on their lives, upon the principle that it pays better than almost any other security, and is absolutely safe.

With these reflections on the significance and great utility of Life Insurance, we refer our readers to an opportune advertisement in another column of one of our best managed and safest of all the institutions of this class in the country. The Manhattan Life Insurance Company of New York, with a Branch Agency at No. 67 Fourth street, Pittsburgh, in charge of Mr. H. L. Ringwalt, well known in this community for his promptness and energy in the management of his important trust, and capable of explaining all its intricacies and advantages. We cordially commend this subject and the above institution and its agency as worthy of consideration, confidence, and patronage.

Grand Tableaux and Exhibition.

The colored teachers and pupils of School No. 6, of Allegheny, are actively engaged in preparing for the public a grand musical and literary feast. It will take place under the direction of Samuel A. Neale, Esq., the talented principal of the school, aided by Miss Mary M. Ware, his accomplished assistant. The programme embraces a number of choice literary and musical performances, and will conclude with the soul-stirring allegorical tableaux of Slavery and Freedom, composed by G. M. Horton, the famous slave poet of North Carolina, assisted by Mr. Neale. A number of amateur artists, among whom are Messrs. T. J. Londen, James F. Bond and Robt. Bell, and Misses Jennie Miller and Medora Moales, have volunteered their services. We can safely promise rare enjoyment to all who attend. Tickets for sale at the barber and eating saloons of the two cities.

Patents Granted Pittsburghers.

Among the patents issued from the United States Patent Office, for the week ending June 19th, were the following: Jacob Reese, of Pittsburgh, for improvement in reducing metalic oxides. William D. Rinehart, of Pittsburgh, for improvement in moulds for casting pulleys. Andrew Kloman, of Pittsburgh, for improvement in upsetting presses. T. Neurgold and G. Stackhouse, of Pittsburgh, for combined drill and blacksmiths' tongs. John J. Ralya, of Allegheny City, for improvement in stave machines. William W. Martin, of Allegheny City, for improvement in bending flanges upon boiler heads. Joseph H. Davis, of Allegheny city, for improvement in pumps for deep wells. Edwin Sprague, of Allegheny city, for improvement in valve gear for steam engines.

Large Strawberries.

On Saturday we received from our friend, J. Heron Foster, Jr., the proprietor of Pomona's Home Nurseries, West Newton, Pa., a number of boxes of the finest strawberries we have ever seen in the market. Each berry was almost a quart in itself, while the flavor was delicious and tempting. Mr. Foster's nurseries stand second to none in the State. He is one of the few responsible small fruit growers and dealers in general nursery stock, and his representation of plants sold can be relied upon. Orders for all the most famous grape cuttings, strawberry, raspberry and blackberry plants, and all small fruits of leading varieties will receive prompt attention. We commend Mr. Foster's nurseries to the attention of our readers.

Change of Time.

A new time table will go into operation on the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway on Monday next. The several trains will leave as follows:

For Chicago at 2:05 A. M., 6:45 A. M., 2:10 P. M., and 11:00 P. M.
For New Castle and Youngstown, 5:30 A. M., and 2:30 P. M.
For New Brighton, 9 A. M., and 5:20 A. M.
For Rochester, 2:25 P. M.
For Leetsdale, 10 A. M., 11:50 A. M., 4:50 P. M., 6:15 P. M., and 10:30 P. M.

Barnum Ahead.—P. T. Barnum is a shrewd fellow and withal a very accommodating gentleman. He sends us two complimentary season tickets to his Museum in New York, for which he has our earnest thanks. He also sends us a request to publish an "enclosed clipping from the London Post" concerning some new curiosities for the Museum. We have read Barnum's Life, written by himself, and beg leave to decline being "humbugged" into advertising at less than "card rates." We agree to use the tickets if ever in New York, still we want twenty cents a line for publishing the "clipping."

Mayor's Levee.—There were nineteen cases before Mayor McCarthy yesterday morning, five of whom were females. Ten of the number were charged with the venial offence of imbibing too freely of a spirituous stimulant known as "Jersey lightning," and the remaining nine were up for disorderly conduct. Of the former, seven were discharged on payment of $3.40 each, and three went to the hill for terms ranging from one to three days. Of those charged with disorderly conduct, four paid ten dollars each, and the remaining five went to the Mount for from one to thirty days.

Held to Bail.—Paul Fevale was before Alderman Taylor on Saturday charged with surety of the peace, on oath of Adam Kinsley. The latter alleges that Fevale is in the habit of using threatening language toward him, and fearing that he would carry his threats into execution he desired to have him held to bail for surety of the peace. His request was complied with and Fevale was made to give security to the amount of three hundred dollars for his future good behavior.

Escaped from the Poor House.—An insane woman named Margaret Atcheson escaped from the County Poor House on Friday afternoon and made her way to Allegheny City, where she formerly resided. She was captured by the police on Saturday and lodged in the tombs. She will be taken back to her old quarters to-day.

Broke the Peace.—Samuel Beal was arraigned before Alderman Johns on Saturday, charged with surety of the peace, on oath of Frederick Weigold. The evidence of Samuel's belligerency was positive, and he was therefore required to give three hundred dollars to keep the peace.

Persons.—Having use for a Steam Engine, boilers and pump, with shafting pulleys, &c., in complete order and nearly new, will see advertisement with reference to John Phillips, 29 St. Clair street, or Isaac Jones, corner of Ross and First streets.

Held to Bail.—John Agnew was arrested and brought before Mayor M'Carthy yesterday, charged with assault and battery on oath of Wm. Hill. The accused was held in the sum of five hundred dollars for his appearance at Court.

The Leader.—The Leader yesterday was an interesting number, but we imagine that it would prove more acceptable in the family circle if broad and vulgar selections were eschewed by the editor.

Fined.—Edward Nye was before Mayor McCarthy charged with violating a city ordinance. He paid a fine of twenty-five dollars and was released.

TELEGRAMS.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Internal Revenue Receipts for the Fiscal Year—Illness of Gen. Hooker—Clerks Discharged from the Pension Office—Another Slaughter of the Innocents—The Grinnell-Rosseau Caning Affair—The Pacific Railroad—Rumored Cabinet Changes Unfounded—Convention of States Now Represented—A Platform Antagonistic to the President—Gen. Grant to be Nominated for the Next Presidency.

NEW YORK, June 30.—The morning newspapers have the following special dispatches from Washington: The total receipts from internal revenue, customs, miscellaneous sources, sales of public lands, for the fiscal year ending to-morrow, will, it is stated at the Treasury Department, foot up over five hundred and fifty million dollars. From internal revenue as estimated will be $350,500,000; Customs, $170,000,000; District tax about $2,000,000; from miscellaneous sources, $35,000,000, and from sales of public lands about $600,000.

The continued ill health of General Joe Hooker, from a severe attack of paralysis, has decided the War Department to relieve him in command at New York, and he will be granted a long leave of absence. General John Pope will succeed General Hooker in the command of the Department of the East. General Howard will succeed General Pope in the West, and General John M. Schofield, who has lately returned from Europe, will be sent to Baltimore.

Twenty-five clerks were discharged from the Pension Office, to make room for partially disabled soldiers, and twenty additional ones will be discharged to-morrow. The retired clerks are said to have been selected from those who have been longest in the employ of of the Government, some of whom had held their positions from five to ten years, and even longer.

There will be another slaughter of the innocents to-morrow. Forty or fifty assistants Quartermasters and Commissaries will be mustered out of service.

The Rousseau-Grinnel Committee have concluded taking the testimony in the case, and is preparing a report. The General's friends feel confident that Rousseau will be expelled, while the friends of the latter are equally sanguine that nothing beyond a resolution of censure will be recommended. The Committee has wisely kept its own counsels, and all reports concerning its future action are purely speculative.

The Blaine-Conkling Committee have not yet concluded summing up testimony, which is voluminous. The general character of the forthcoming report is ascertained to be in justification of Conkling and damaging to Fry.

Parties interested in Omaha, on the main line of the Pacific Railroad, are here pressing the President to veto the bill just passed, allowing the Kansas Branch to be run due west toward Denver City, and the California end to build eastward. They seem sanguine of success, but it is doubtful whether the President will oppose a non-political measure that so large a majority of both Houses, and of all parties, have endorsed.

James W. Duncan, late of the Confederate army, one of the Andersonville prison notorieties, recently tried by a military commission at Savannah, Georgia, has been sentenced to be confined at hard labor for fifteen years at Fort Pulaski, Georgia, for murder in violation of the laws of war.

The Hon. E. B. Washburne is improving slowly, but will not be ready for active work for at least a week. This will prevent the Memphis Investigating Committee report from being made before the close of this session.

A Times special says that the reports concerning a change in the Cabinet are unfounded. Neither Mr. Speed nor Mr. Harlan has even remotely suggested to the President a desire to retire.

The Herald's special says: It is stated on good authority that the prominent radicals at Washington have, in a series of caucuses, determined to call a convention of the States now represented, which shall determine upon a platform antagonistic to the President. The name of Lieutenant General Grant is to put in nomination for successor to President Johnson.

THE WAR IN EUROPE.

Prussia More Detested than ever—Enthusiasm of the Austrians—Russia Will Aid Austria—France Ready for Eventualities.

NEW YORK, June 30.—The Herald's foreign correspondence says: Berlin reports represent the condition of affairs existing in Vienna as very bad, while on the other hand the accounts from Vienna assert that Prussia is more detested than ever, and that the Austrian people, from the Tyrol to the Gates of the Patac, are full of enthusiasm for the struggle, and are animated with the most loyal feeling.

The Austrian army under Benedek had its right wing resting on Cracow, with its left on the Saxon frontier; North of the Prague.

It is again intimated that Russia will aid Austria if necessary. Napoleon holds France ready for eventualities.

The difficulties which lie in the march of Italy to Vienna, are said to be very formidable.

The financial statement of belligerent countries go to show that the war must, from want of means, be a short one.

Sixteen Italian war ships were at anchor in the Gulf of Toronto, on the 14th of June. Admiral Persano was in command, with his flag on the Reidelatia.

Texas State Election.

NEW ORLEANS, June 29.—Advices from Texas state that returns from Houston, Austin and Himstead largely favor Throckmorton for Governor, and the Union conservative ticket is elected by an immense majority. Negro suffrage is killed. A very large vote was polled throughout the state.

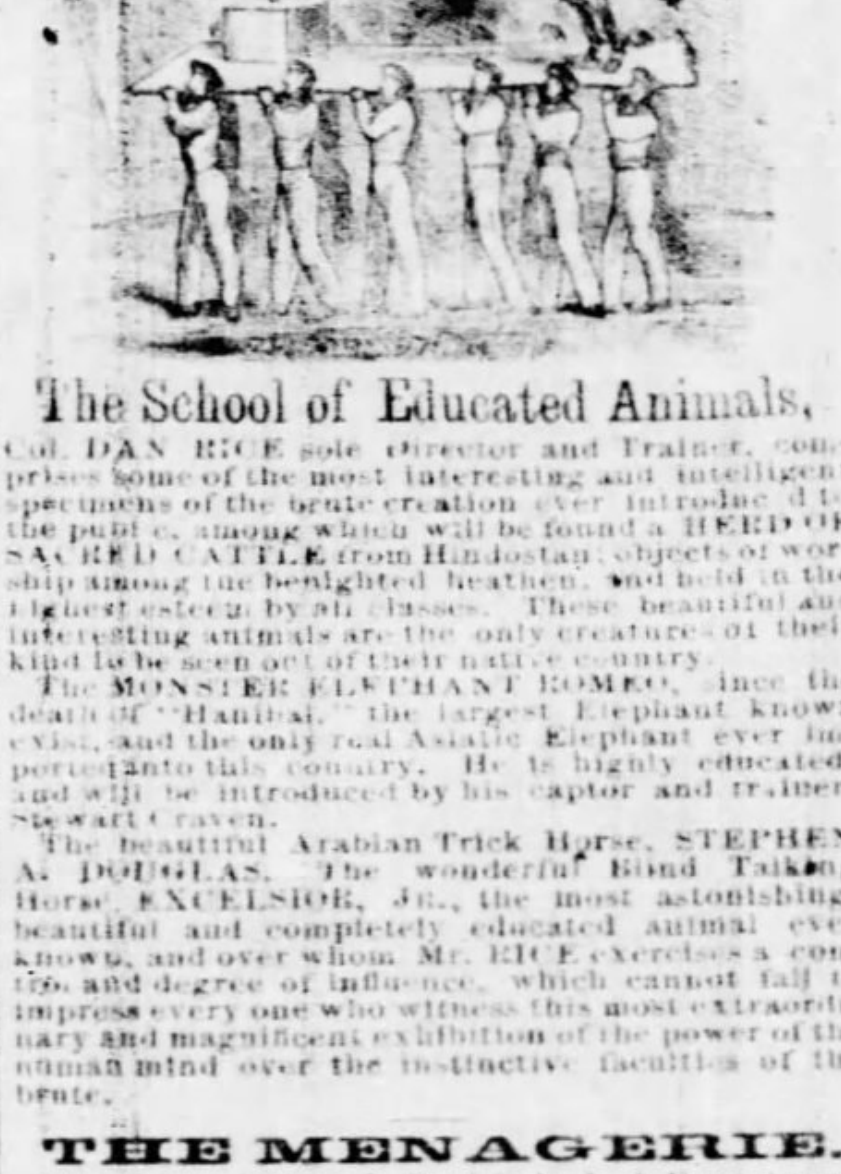
DAN RICE'S
Interesting School of
EDUCATED ANIMALS.
A Choice and Rare Menagerie,
in conjunction with a FULL and REFINED
CIRCUS COMPANY.
The Triplicate Features

So arranged as to form TWO SEPARATE and DISTINCT EXHIBITIONS under the same Pavilion, and for ONE PRICE OF ADMISSION.



The School of Educated Animals,

Col. DAN RICE sole Director and Trainer, comprises some of the most interesting and intelligent specimens of the brute creation ever introduced to the public, among which will be found a HERD OF SACRED CATTLE from Hindostan, objects of worship among the benighted heathen, and held in the highest esteem by all classes. These beautiful and interesting animals are the only creatures of their kind to be seen out of their native country.

The MONSTER ELEPHANT ROMEO, since the death of "Hanibal," the largest Elephant known to exist, and the only real Asiatic Elephant ever imported into this country. He is highly educated, and will be introduced by his captor and trainer, Stewart Craven.

The beautiful Arabian Trick Horse, STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS. The wonderful Blind Talking Horse EXCELSIOR, Jr., the most astonishing, beautiful and completely educated animal ever known, and over whom Mr. RICE exercises a control and degree of influence, which cannot fail to impress every one who witnesses this most extraordinary and magnificent exhibition of the power of the human mind over the instinctive faculties of the brute.

THE MENAGERIE.

The Zoological and Ornithological Department comprises an exceedingly choice collection of the rarest, most beautiful and curious specimens of Natural History, embracing in all eighteen cages, in which will be found LIONS, TIGERS, LEOPARDS, &c., &c., with unique Birds from various quarters of the globe.

A den of PERFORMING BEASTS will be exhibited by Prof. LANGWORTHY, the great American Dompteur.

A flock of PALATINE SHEEP, drove of ARABIAN CAMELS, an INFANT DROMEDARY only three feet in height; a BRAZILIAN TIGER, a beautiful specimen; a specimen of that very rare animal, the TAPIA, or RIVER HOG; a troupe of diminutive SHETLAND PONIES, ridden by MONKEY JOCKEYS.

THE CIRCUS COMPANY,

Which is organized under the sole direction of Mr. DAN RICE, will be found to number the most refined and noted artists in the profession, among whom are Mr. S. Stickney, Jr., Mr. Geo. Derious, Mr. Silas Baldwin, Mdme. Stickney, Mrs. George Derious, Mr. Fred. Barclay, and others of equal repute, and Mr. Rice pledges himself that the performance in the Ring will be of such a character, that while the most fastidious and exacting, shall find no opportunity for cavil or objection, the most ardent admirers of Equestrian Skill cannot fail of being thoroughly gratified.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—ORDER OF PERFORMANCES: The exhibition of Menagerie and School of Educated Animals. The Shetland Ponies and Monkey Jockeys. The Elephant Romeo and Prof. Langworthy's Den of Wild Beasts—with a Lecture on the wonders and purposes of the Animal Creation, by DAN RICE. Intermission of ten minutes, during which those who do not desire to witness the Equestrian Performances will have an opportunity of retiring. At the expiration of the intermission, the entertainments of the arena will commence. In the course of the performances, in compliance with a universally expressed desire, DAN RICE will don the motley, and for the first time in many years, appear as Clown and Jester. SAM STICKNEY, Jr., the favorite Jester and Vocalist, and the entire corps of male and female artists, will appear in a select and pleasing programme. A Grand Street Pageant will signalize the entrance of the establishment into the city, at 10 A. M. This procession excels in dazzling magnificence anything of the kind attempted on this continent, and will be led by the new and beautiful GOLDEN SWAN CHARIOT, containing Colson's North-Western Cornet Band, drawn by 20 superb thoroughbred Arabian horses, and followed by Romeo, the monster Elephant, with Dromedaries, Camels, Trick Horses, Ponies, Mules, Cages, Dens, Vans, Carriages, &c.

Admission to both exhibitions, 50 cents. Children under ten years of age, 25 cents, of admission to either exhibition, separate, the same.

$100,000 IN GREENBACKS.

The postponement is an unavoidable necessity, (as much in consequence of the number of tickets yet unsold) as the positive necessity there is for the proper registration of those already disposed of, which has been delayed in consequence of the negligence and carelessness of a portion of our Agents in making their proper returns.

We advise all parties wanting tickets to send for them without delay, as we have but a limited number yet on hand. We wish most particularly to impress upon the minds of our Agents the importance of their making their returns at once, and of rectifying whatever errors may have crept into their reports heretofore. We will say to those sending for tickets, that if they should all be sold at the time their order is received, the money will be returned. No applications for new agencies for the sale of tickets will be considered, as we have now more than sufficient tickets to supply those Agents we have already appointed. Tickets are for sale at the principal hotels, book and music stores in the city, and at our office, 133 Dearborn street, price $1.00 each, sent by mail on receipt of price and stamp for return postage.

We invite the particular attention of persons wishing to order tickets by mail to the following

FINANCE AND TRADE.

SATURDAY, June 30, 1866.

The New York stock quotations to-day were as follows: Gold, 153¾@153½; 1881's, 111¼; Five Twenties, 103¾@103½; Seven Thirties, 103¾; Ten Forties, 97¾. Cleveland & Pittsburgh R. R., 83½; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago R. R., 98¾; Erie, 62¾; Chicago & North Western, 30¾. As will be seen above, gold is somewhat lower to-day. The July interest, will, no doubt, effect the price temporarily, but importers and dealers through the interior, who generally buy for gold, neglected to take hold when the price ranged about 140; these, bills are now maturing, and they will be compelled to buy at market rate. The heavy sales by the "bears" are not yet covered, which is evident from the fact that they are borrowing the article and paying from ¼ to ½ per cent. Among the mass of the people who are holding gold, there seems to be a general desire to convert it into something that will bear interest.

Oil and Mining stocks are reported steadily in New York at former quotations. Pithole Creek has slightly advanced, and higher quotations are looked for. United States seems to have touched its lowest point again; it is reported that some of the old wells of this company are increasing in production, and some new wells, which are about to test, give evidence of success.

In government bonds there seems to be a desire on the part of a great many small holders to realize, and take advantage of the present advance. Large amounts of Seven-Thirties are being offered at about New York quotations, but it is difficult to obtain eastern prices in this market. Five Twenties are in demand, and the new issues seem to have the preference, as they have a longer time to run, and are selling a little below the old issues.

The transactions in oil stocks in this market have been very limited this week, though there is evidently a better feeling manifested towards this class of securities. The general impression seems to be that there will be a reaction for the better, and that the stock of good reliable dividend-paying companies will sell at par, if not at a premium before long. There is some little inquiry for Columbia, owing mainly to the expectation of a handsome dividend next month, and we hear of sales been made toward the close of the week at 19 to 19¼, and holders generally are asking 20. It is also reported that there have been some transactions in Ritchie, Triumph, and some of the other low priced stocks—at very low figures, as a matter of course.

Bank shares are quiet but firm, and so far as we can learn, there have been but few transactions during the week. There is considerable inquiry for first class securities, but the extreme views of holders has a tendency to retard operations. Insurance shares very dull. No movement of any consequence in any of our Railway stocks, and the same is equally true of Bridge and Gas stocks. City and County bonds quiet and nominally unchanged.

—The following is a statement of the receipts of customs of the four principal ports of the United States, from the 16th to the 23d of June:

New York	$2,108,787 80
Boston	291,784 42
Philadelphia	154,819 00
Baltimore	69,457 69

The Philadelphia Ledger says:

There is a steady demand for investment, and from banks and capitalists to employ their surplus funds. The proceeds of the One Year Certificates now in course of redemption, it is believed, will, to a large extent, go into the various classes of Government loans, a fact that will [illegible] materially to strengthen their prices. [illegible] the redemption was [illegible] there are probably outstanding [illegible] of these certificates, thirty-seven and a half millions of dollars. As the interest stops at a fixed period, the redemption will be rapid, and cannot fail to tell sensibly on [illegible] prices, but especially prices of government [illegible]. Besides the payment of the certificates on the 15th of July, the Treasury will pay [illegible] interest on Seven Thirties making an aggregate of money thrown on the market from the Treasury of over forty-five millions of dollars; add to which the fact after the 1st of July there will be a large disbursements of interest and dividends by the city and by companies. These facts foreshadow an extraordinary ease in money during the next few weeks.

—In reference to the last of the certificates of indebtedness which the Government is now paying off on presentation, at Washington, there exists good reason that they should be presented at once, not only to meet the wishes of the Government to pay off the whole, if presented, within the present month, but because it is thought the money can be re-invested to better advantage now than early in July when a vast amount of half yearly dividends on United States stocks, Bank and State stocks and Railway bonds will be seeking employment. The amount of certificates outstanding on the 1st of June was $15,025,000. The interest on the whole, it will be remembered, will cease on the 15th of July, whether presented for payment or not.

New York Money and Stock Market.

NEW YORK, June 30.—No second board is held to-day. In the stock market little is doing, except in Erie, which is rather more active and has sold as high as 62½. Gold is scarce to-day and the borrowing rate is ⅛@¼ in favor of the lender. The payment from the Treasury of $9,733,000 in coin interest, on Monday, is expected to bring an ample supply of cash gold in market. Gold is quoted this afternoon at 152⅞. Total imports for the week $4,011,605; total exports of specie, $550,574; total since January 1st, $45,672,778.

The Post's money article says: The money market is abundantly supplied at 4@5 per cent. Commercial paper passes freely at 5@7 per cent., with little offering. The stock market is dull and there is little doing, except in Government securities, for which the investment demand continues active, especially from small buyers in the country. After the board Erie sold for 62½. Foreign Exchange closes quiet for the steamer. Bills at sixty days on London, 1,09¾@1,09⅞ for Commercial, 1 09⅞@1,09⅞ for Bankers do, at short sight, 1,09⅞@1,10.

The Commercial's money article says there is a continued dullness in Wall street in everything except gold speculation. The best indication of the oversold condition of the Market and the extreme scarcity of gold is in the fact that this morning's loans have been made at 5-6 to ¼ per cent., per day. There is still considerable activity in Governments. A considerable amount of the transactions, however, are due to the changing of old 5-20's for other bonds and 7-30's, owing to the temporary difference of price between the two classes of securities. The consequence of this movement is a decline of about ½ on 5-20's of '62, and a corresponding advance in those of later dates, and in 10-40's, 20 ½ lower. In Railroad stocks, the transactions were nominal, except on Erie, the sales of which at the regular board amounted to 5,000 shares at 61½@61⅞. Hudson River is firm, closing at 121. Money is rather more in demand, chiefly from operators in gold, who are ready to pay high rate of interest on demand loans. There are more transactions at 5 ℔ cent., but 4 ℔ cent. is the prevailing price. Foreign Exchange is nominal. There is some effort to sell commercial paper, but the demand is quiet. The steamers to-day took out for Europe $433,854.

Weekly Review of New York Market.

NEW YORK, June 29.—The wholesale market has been quiet and prices are a trifle lower for most articles:

Cotton—The demand has been moderate and mostly from spinners. Shippers are unable to operate at present prices. The news from Europe is favorable, and it is expected that the export will soon be resumed. In order to effect sales holders have been compelled to submit to a slight concession. The market is quiet and prices are not strong, at 36@37½c for Middling Uplands and Gulfs, and 38@39c for Middling New Orleans and Texas. The sales were 5,000 bales and the receipts 10,456 bales.

Flour—The market has been dull for low and medium grades of Western and State flour. The arrivals have been more liberal and the stock has slightly increased; prices have gradually declined and holders are anxious to realize; Extra State, $7,60@8,10; Shipping Ohio, $9,10@10,20; St. Louis Extra, $14@17.

WHEAT—The market is dull and prices are unchanged. We quote No. 1 Chicago spring at $1,60@1,70, Milwaukee club, $2,35@2,45.

PETROLEUM—Crude has been dull and irregular. The receipts have been fair, and with an accumulating stock prices have declined, and closed lower and heavy.

PORK—The inquiry for consumption has been light. The business has been confined almost [illegible] to speculators. We quote mess at [illegible]; western prime mess at $31,62[illegible].

LONDON, June 11.—Refined—In face of the continued small trade demand and total absence of export inquiry, the market has been very dull for American on the spot, which is still quoted 2s 2d for small lots. Summer deliveries have been neglected, while a few transactions for the last four months are reported at 2s 5d. Stock this day, 6834 bbls, same time last year, 2927 bbls and 115 cases.

NEW ORLEANS, June 30.—Cotton irregular; Sales of one thousand bales Low Middling, 32@34. To-day's receipts, one hundred and eighty four bales; Sterling 67; New York Exchange, ½ premium.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
SATURDAY, June 30, 1866.

The produce markets have been dull, and to some extent neglected during the week, and while there has been a fair volume of business in the aggregate, the transactions were mostly of a local and unimportant character. In values, the fluctuations have been comparatively light. Provisions have advanced, and rule very firm, and Groceries, too, are held pretty firmly, and are likely to be while gold remains at the present high premium. In Grain, we can report a firmer feeling in regard to Wheat, but Oats and Corn are in good supply, and the former are dull and drooping.

ASHES—There is some little inquiry for Pearls, and we can report small sales at 13½. Soda Ash is dull, and there is nothing doing in Potash.

GRAIN—Wheat is firm and in light supply; we now quote No. 1 Spring at $2,35@2,40. Oats in good supply, dull and irregular; sale of 1 car prime Iowa at 56; 1 do do at 57; 1 do do Ohio at 56; 2 cars Chicago at 56, including sks; and 500 bush do, from store, at 54. Corn is dull but unchanged; mixed is quoted at 75@77, and prime Shelled at 80. Buckwheat is selling in small lots at $2@2,25. No movement in Rye or Barley.

MILL FEED—Sale of 1 car Middlings at $1,35; 1 car seconds at $1,10. Shorts are selling at $1 per cwt, on track.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is firm, with a moderate jobbing demand but unchanged. We continue to quote at 16¼ to 16½ for Shoulders; 19 to 19½ for Ribbed Sides, and 24@25½ for Canvassed Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is dull but firm at 22½c for steamed, and 23c for kettle. Mess Pork is selling in a small way at $33,50@$33,75. Dried Beef is selling at 26¼.

FLOUR—Is firm with a moderate local demand but unchanged. Regular sales from store at $10,50 to $11,50 for fair to choice Spring Wheat Family; $12,50 to $13 for Winter Wheat; and $14 to $16 for fancy brands. Sales of Rye Flour at $6,75.

EGGS—Continue dull, with a supply somewhat in excess of the demand; we now quote at 22.

HAY—Is coming in more freely and the market is a little dull and drooping; sales at scales at $20 to $25 per ton, the last named figure for prime.

CHEESE—Is in good supply and dull; sales of Western Reserve at 15@16.

BEANS—There is a good demand for prime White at $2 per bush, and common are almost unsalable at any price.

PIG LEAD—Is quoted firm at 12.

FLAXSEED—In demand at $2,70@2,75.

SORGHUM—Dull; prime is selling at 55.

OIL—Sales of No. 1 Lard at $1,83@1,85.

HOMINY—Is dull at 4.

HIGHWINES—Small sales at $2,29.

LIME—Dull; sales at $1,70@1,75.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
SATURDAY, June 30, 1866.

CRUDE—The Crude market was very dull and weak during the greater part of the week, but yesterday and to-day the demand improved somewhat, and the sales during these two days were almost as large, in the aggregate, as those of the balance of the week put together. This, as a matter of course, stimulated the market somewhat, but while there is evidently a firmer feeling, there is, as yet, no improvement in prices, and we continue to quote at 12½ cents to 13 cents, barrels returned and in bulk; 17½@17¾ cents, packages included, on the spot; and 17½@18, packages included, free on board cars. Sale of 500 bbls, in bulk, to arrive, at 13; 2000 do do at 13; 146 at 17¾, packages included, and 200, packages included, at 18, free on board cars. The improvement in the demand during the close of the week may be attributed to the fact that there is also an improvement in the demand for Refined oil, and our refiners generally seem disposed to purchase enough to cover their contracts for future delivery.

REFINED—The transactions in bonded oil have been quite large during the entire week, and while the market has been fairly active, prices are lower as compared with the rates prevailing the early part of the week. Yesterday and to-day, however, owing to some cause or other which we are unable to explain, there was a firmer feeling, and some few sales were effected at an advance. The following transactions were effected to-day: 1000 bbls "Brilliant" for October delivery in Philadelphia, buyers option, at 44; 500 "Brilliant" for same month and option, at 44, 500, "Brilliant" for September, buyers option, at 43; 1000 "Brilliant" for November, buyer's option, at 44½; 500, brand not named, 1st to 15th of July, sellers option, at 39; and 500 for September, buyer's option, at 36 free on board cars here. We can also report sales—made on Friday—of 500 bbls "Eucesco" on the spot in Philadelphia, 39½; 500 same brand, to be delivered during the last half of July, sellers option at 40. In free oil there has not been a single round lot operation during the week that we could hear of.

NAPTHA AND RESIDUUM—There is no demand whatever for Naptha, and there has not been a single sale reported for months. Residuum is dull and entirely nominal at $4,00 to $4,25 per barrel.

ARRIVALS—The arrivals of oil have been rather light this week, although fair for the season. (Messrs. Lockart & Frew have received, during the past week or two, nine thousand barrels, which has not previously been reported, and this, we include in the receipts since the first of January.) The arrivals reported to-day, were as follows:

Js. Wilkins	322	Fisher & Bro	320
F. Logan	217	Brewer & Barke	330
John Mumhall	80	J. T. Stockdale	150
Gallagher	500

Total	1929
Total Receipts for the week	11,925
Total Receipts last week	27,592
Total Receipts by river since Jan. 1	486,657

Iron Markets.

NEW-YORK, June 30.—The market for is inaction, the demand being confined to more immediate wants of consumers; the sales are 50 tons Gartsherrie and Coltness, ex ship, to importer, on private terms; 250 do of the former brand, from yard, $50, and 50 do Glengarnock, $46,50, also from yard; Eglinton is quoted $46,50. No. 1 American continues scarce and is held firmly at $46@47 without sales. We notice besides 2000 tons No. 1 English Wrought scrap, to arrive, at $55; and 1000 packs Russia sheet, also to arrive, on terms not made public. Bar, &c., are held very firmly, and sales have been made from importers hands of 300 tons English refined bar, supposed at $75, and 50 tons do hoop, $95@100, both gold. American refined bar sold in small lots from manufacturers hands at $105@110 cash, which is an improvement; From store, there is not much doing, but the tendency of prices is upward. Sheet is held higher.

IRONTON, (Ohio) June 28.—Prices in every branch of the trade are well maintained, although transactions are by no means heavy. We hear of sales of No. 1 foundry, delivered here, at $50 cash. The quotations which we have been giving for several weeks still hold; $50@53 for No. foundry, and $47@46 for No 2 mill. A firm feeling exists among the furnacemen, and they are not insisting upon sales at quoted prices. An impression universally exists that rates will not decline soon. Bar iron is dull. The rolling mills are able to keep considerable ahead of their orders. There are however, indications of more activity. Flat, round and square, boiled may be quoted at 5c. The demand for nails is good at $6,75 for 10d.

PHILADELPHIA, June 30.—Pig metal is in steady demand, at the advance, with sales of 1500 tons No. 1 foundry at $45@46, 1000 tons on terms kept secret; No. 2 at $43@44, and forge at $38@40 per ton. Of the receipts 260 head were brought from Ohio, 110 from Illinois, 25 from Missouri, and 160 from West Virginia over the the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad; and 25 from Maryland on foot, with 20 left over from last week. Of the offerings during the week 75 head were bought by Washington butchers, 28 head by the Government agent, 30 head left over unsold, and the balance taken by Baltimore butchers. The Tea Trade.

The Hong Kong Trade Report, of April 14th, says:

"The great increase in the export of tea from China to the United States, during the past season, has already attracted notice. It may be worth while to call attention to the table of exports from Yokohama, where it will be seen that whereas to this date last year the export of Japanese tea from that port to America had been 1,749,813 lbs, the quantity sent during the present season amounts to 6,263,194 lbs."

Oswego Market.

RIVER NEWS.

The river is again receding steadily at this point with but three feet ten inches in the channel yesterday afternoon, against four and a half feet on Saturday morning. The weather yesterday was cloudy and unsettled, with indications of more rain.

The Bayard, from Parkersburg, got in about eleven o'clock on Saturday night, with a good trip and drawing all the water. She returns again to-day leaving about noon. The Emma Graham from Zanesville, may possibly arrive to-day, although it is very doubtful, as she will probably lay by until the fall trade opens up.

The Columbia from St. Louis, and the Nora, from Cincinnati, had not arrived up to yesterday, but they would doubtless get in during the evening or night.

The Kate Putnam, Rose Hambleton and Aradina were loading at Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Friday.

The Pine Grove left for Cincinnati on Saturday with a moderate trip, and the Julia also, cleared for Zanesville. The Forest City left for Parkersburg on time, as did also the Chieftain and Fayette for Brownsville.

Capt. John Noss, of the Importer, arrived here on Saturday from Cincinnati, having come through by rail. He reports his boat as laid up at Cincinnati. There was some talk about chartering her for some of the packet trades during the low water season.

The Yorktown did not get off for St. Louis on Saturday as expected, but she will leave to-day without fail. Capt. Wash Ebbert is in command, and Capt. Standish Peppard, assisted by his son, has charge of the office.

The St. Louis Republican, of Friday, says:

The steamer Henry Von Phul and Clara Dolson, belonging to the estate of Edward Walsh, deceased, were offered for sale at auction on 'Change yesterday. The highest bids made were $11,000 for the Von Phul, by Mart Watt, Esq., of Memphis, and $28,000 for the Dolson, by H. L. Henry, of this city. In consequence of the extremely low figures, the boats were not sold.

The appropriations of the river and harbor bill, appropriated on the 23d inst, amount to $109,804,791. The following are among the items: For surveys on the Atlantic coast, $35,000; the Pacific coast, $25,000; lakes, $150,000; the Western and North Western rivers, $100,000; for improvements of the Mississippi, Missouri, Arkansas and Ohio rivers, $550,000.

The Lorena arrived at St. Louis on Wednesday last, and the Leonidas was advertised to leave there on Thursday. The Glasgow has been laid up at Cincinnati, and Capt. Johnston, we understand, has gone to Iowa to look after his farm and sheep. The Cincinnati Commercial, of Friday, says:

The Spray, from Cairo, passed up for Pittsburgh yesterday noon, after coaling in the mouth of Licking river. She did not land on this side of the river. The Pine Bluff received one hundred tons here—very little through freight for the Arkansas, however. The J. G. Blackford has very little St. Paul freight, but a fair trip for St. Louis.

The Memphis Avalanche has the following, in regard to the sinking of the steamer John S. Hall:

The steamer John S. Hall, which plied on the Arkansas river, between Little Rock and Fort Smith, picked up a snag on Friday morning last, at three o'clock, just above Gally Rock, and sunk. Her passengers and crew were all saved. She belonged to the Arkansas River Packet Company, Capt. N L Green, Superintendent, and was insured at Pittsburgh for $12,000. She was valued at $20,000. Captain Green informs us that the Pilgrim will be sent up immediately to take the place of the Hall, the Argos in the mean time is doing the business.

The Louisville Courier of Thursday says:

Although the river was reported falling at Pittsburgh yesterday, the coal boat men anticipate a good tide of water from that quarter as the Allegheny, at head waters, was very high, at some points bank full. That rise has possibly ran aground somewhere above Pittsburgh, probably gone down Pithole to make another oil strike.

THE NEW

Spring and Summer Medicine.

FLUID EXTRACT

SARSAPARILLA,

COMBINED WITH

Iodide of Lime,

PREPARED FOR

G. W. PETTES, BOSTON,

BY

James R. Nichols & Co.,

MANUFACTURING CHEMISTS,

MANUFACTURERS OF THE

ELIXIR PERUVIAN BARK

WITH

Protoxide of Iron,

Which has become so favorably known as a

Tonic and Restorative,

By Physicians and Invalids in all parts of the country.

The new preparation, "SARSAPARILLA IN COMBINATION WITH IODIDE OF LIME," presents one of the most prompt alterative agents in a form capable of exerting full action upon the system, and this in minute and pleasant doses. It is conceded that the alterative, resolvent, or tonic effects of Iodine, are exerted most decidedly when associated with other alteratives, in combination; and the Sarsaparilla seems to fulfil perfectly all the favorable requisitions.

The first effect usually observed when "SARSAPARILLA WITH IODIDE OF LIME" is taken, is an increase of appetite, showing that it has tonic properties of a marked character. Its alterative effects are manifest in its ready combination with the blood and tissues. Pale, scrofulous women and children improve rapidly under its use, and the vital functions assume a healthy condition.

It is admirably adapted to a large number of chronic or acute affections peculiar to children. It is suited to them, both by the mildness and efficiency of Medicinal effect and the pleasant, attractive form of the remedy. It may be given for a long period where constitutional influences are desired, and no repugnance, or disinclination to take the syrup, encountered. In White-Swellings, Hip-Joint Disease, and Distortions of the Spine, it should be given persistently, in moderate doses, until relief is obtained.

The accumulation of morbid matters in the system seems to become manifest and very troublesome. Lassitude, Headache, Boils, Costiveness, Loss of Appetite, Pains in the Joints, Indigestion, etc., are very common. Nothing ever devised is better adapted to exterminate or drive off these affections than this new combination of SARSAPARILLA WITH IODIDE OF LIME.

No preparation like it, or which approximates to it, as an

has ever before been placed within the reach of invalids. Indeed, it is an entirely NEW and SCIENTIFIC combination, in no respect resembling anything hitherto employed.

The opinion of medical men concerning it, the description of its chemical character, therapeutic value, manner of use, etc., are given in a circular, which can be had at the store of any and all first-class Druggists.

For sale in Pittsburgh by R. E. SELLERS & CO., AND ALL DRUGGISTS.

DR. KEYSER'S

Pectoral Syrup

CURES CONSUMPTION

Cures Bronchitis

CURES COLDS,

Cures Asthma

CURES

All Diseases of the Lungs

A case of five years' standing cured by DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.

PITTSBURGH, January 11, 1860.

DR. KEYSER:—My wife has been afflicted with it by cough and difficulty of breathing for five or six years, which, for several years back, had gradually increased in violence. The complaint has been hereditary, and she had been treated by several physicians without any relief. In this state of her case procured some of your PECTORAL COUGH SYRUP. I bought, the first time, a fifty cent bottle, which relieved her very much; I then called and got a dollar bottle, which cured her entirely, and she has now no trace of the former disease, except weakness. I would also state that I used the medicine myself to a cold and cough. The medicine cured me by taking one dose. I express my entire satisfaction with the medicine, and you are at liberty to publish this if you desire so.

WM. WILSON,
Alderman, Fifth Ward

PITTSBURGH, April 24, 1857.

READ THE TRUTH.—DR. KEYSER:—I have a daughter who has taken several medicines for a bad cough without benefit, among them Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I purchased from you a bottle of your Pectoral Syrup, and before she had used half a bottle she was relieved. The second bottle cured her entirely of her cough.

JOHN DARIN,
Robinson street, Allegheny.

PITTSBURGH, December 31.

A GREAT CURE BY DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—I live in Peebles township, Allegheny county. I had a cough and spitting, which commenced about the 4th of February last, and continued eight months. I employed the best physicians in the country, and my cough continued unabated until early in October. At that time I was advised to try your Pectoral Cough Syrup, which I did, and after I had taken one bottle I was entirely free from the coughing and spitting. I had despaired of ever getting well, and I think it should be known that this valuable remedy will do for others what it has done in my case.

JOHN C. LITTLE,
Witness: B. M. KERR. Peebles township.

PATTON TOWNSHIP, April 14, 1858.

A WONDERFUL CURE.—Some time ago an old neighbor of mine was very ill with a bad cough, which every one supposed to be consumption. His relatives told me that he had taken every remedy they heard of without benefit; his brother came to see him die, and all were confirmed in the belief that he could not live. I had about the third of a bottle of your Pectoral syrup, which I gave him, and it entirely cured him, to the astonishment of all. What makes the case more remarkable, is the extreme age of the man, he being about eighty years old. I have no doubt the Pectoral saved his life.

JOHN McGINNIS.

DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP IN BLAIRSVILLE.—Please send me another supply of your valuable Pectoral Syrup. "Almost everybody around us has the cold, and are enquiring for "Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup." We have sold sixteen bottles the last week, and are now entirely out. Mr. A. Alter and Mr. P. Maher, both of Blairsville, Pa., told us they would not be without it in their families. In fact, all who use it once want it again.

Yours, respectfully,
J. S. WATTERSON & SONS.

January 30, 1860.

PITTSBURGH, November 18, 1858.

DR. KEYSER:—Although not an advocate of Patent Medicines, in general, it affords me pleasure indescribable to recommend your PECTORAL SYRUP. As a medicine, it is well worthy the attention of any person who may in any manner be afflicted with coughs, colds and hoarseness of any kind, and for the peculiar qualifications for removing all that disagreeable sensation attending a severe cold.

I have been, more or less in my life, affected with the severest of colds and hoarseness. At times my throat would become so closed as to prevent my speaking above a whisper, and by taking a few doses of the above Syrup it would relieve me entirely.

In recommending this medicine, I must unhesitatingly say that it is the best remedy I ever found, purporting to cure the above, nor should any family be without this remedy for diseases so prevalent.

Yours, most respectfully,
EDWARD J. JONES,
Cashier Citizens' Deposit Bank.

STEUBENVILLE, Ohio, March 14, 1865.

I have used Dr. Keyser's Cough Syrup for a bad cough of several years standing, and can cheerfully say it is the best medicine for the same that I have ever taken.

J. W. PRICE.

COL. PRATT AND DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—DR. KEYSER—Dear Sir: Excuse the delay of my acknowledging the excellence of your Pectoral Cough Syrup sooner. I take great pleasure in saying that it is all you say it is. It knocked the noise out of my cough, and the worst one I was ever afflicted with. I have not used more than one-half of the bottle, and I can and do wish that all who are afflicted would give it as fair a trial as I have done, and they will be proud to say, "It is no quack medicine." I would not suffer another such an attack for any consideration, or at any cost. I am confident I can breathe more freely than I ever did. I shall always acknowledge a debt of gratitude for inventing so excellent a remedy. You are at liberty to use my name in this regard as you think proper.

E. F. PRATT,
Messenger Common Council, Pittsburgh, Pa.

N. B.—I am no stranger to my fellow-citizens, and all who entertain doubts can consult me personally.

E. F. P.

ANOTHER NEW CERTIFICATE.—DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—I had been troubled with a cough and cold for several weeks—so bad I was that I could not sleep. I had the advice and prescriptions from three of the best physicians in the city, whom I could name, but do not do so. I finally procured a bottle of your Pectoral Syrup, which cured me entirely.

J. W. SIMONTON,
(Signed) No. 246 Liberty street, Pittsburgh, Pa.

January 9th, 1860.

"STOP THAT COUGHING."—"How can I do it?" Go to Keyser's, on Wood street, and get a bottle of his Cough Pectoral, and if that don't cure you, your case must be desperate indeed!" This is a specimen of the colloquy one hears every day in cold-catching periods of the year. And we can, from actual experiment, cheerfully concur in the adviser's admonition as above, for we have tried the "Pectoral," in a most stubborn case, with entire success. Near two weeks ago we went to Pittsburgh, with one of the most distressing, contrary, mulish, unsubduable coughs we ever experienced since our advent upon this mundane sphere. We coughed steadily and laboriously for one whole week, in hopes of tiring it out, but it was no go. In fact, it seemed rather to have improved by practice, and to have acquired strength, potency and distressibility by the operation. In this stage of the siege we coughed our way to Keyser's, No. 140 Wood street, procured a fifty cent bottle of the "Pectoral," took it according to directions, and in forty-eight hours we were master of the field, the enemy having unconditionally surrendered, after a brief, but unequal conflict with so formidable ad adversary as Keyser's famous Cough Pectoral.—Brownsville Clipper, Dec. 14, 1859.

CHOLERA DISARMED!!!

The Chief Cause of Pestilence Destroyed!

DR. E. COURTARET'S DISINFECTING FLUIDS, secured by Letters Patent in the United States and France. Prepared solely by the New York Disinfecting Company, at their Laboratory, Nos. 268, 300 and 302 Henry Street, N. Y. Office, 52 Cedar Street.

This Company organized on a permanent basis, with Dr. Courtaret, the celebrated French Chemist, in charge of its Laboratory, is prepared to furnish its DISINFECTING FLUIDS for sick rooms, nurseries, urinals, water closets, privies, cesspools, sewers, gutters, ships, railroads, hospitals, prisons, and public institutions of all kinds, slaughter-houses, offal and fat-boiling establishments; all kinds of manure (immensely increasing the value of the latter to every farmer), and wherever poisonous and offensive gases exist. These agents are deodorizers, antiseptics, antiputrescents, and disinfectants in the scientific meaning of the words. They remove noxious gases and odors by chemical principles—leaving in their places healthful air; they are DESTROYERS, and not merely absorbents of poisonous gases—not injurious to utensils in which they are used. The attention of medical and scientific men is directed to these disinfectants. Attached are testimonials in favor of this great discovery, which, with hundreds of others can be seen at the Company's office.

DELAVAN HOUSE, ALBANY, March 30, 1866.

To the President of the New York Disinfecting Co.

Dear Sir: It is all it is represented to be. We have made many trials of disinfectants, but now consider that we have found an article which surpasses all others as a remedy against all bad odors.

NEW YORK, April 9, 1866.

To the President of the New York Disinfecting Co.:

Dear Sir: We pronounce it, without exception, to be the best we have ever known. Its effect upon every matter is complete and instantaneous.
